

Miss Doris Brown Completes Plans For Her Wedding

Miss Doris Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Brown of Clyde, has completed plans for her marriage to Alvin McKinnish, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McKinnish of Canton.

The ceremony will be held Sunday afternoon, July 22, at 5:30 o'clock in the Clyde Baptist Church.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will be attended by Miss Helen Jones of Canton as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Lewis Rogers of Clyde, Mrs. L. A. Coman, Jr. of Canton, cousin of the bride, Miss Betty Joyce Morgan of Clyde, cousin of the bride, and Miss Alice Fincher of Waynesville. Miss Leanna Harris of Hamilton, Ohio, will be a junior bridesmaid.

Roy McKinnish of Clyde will serve as best man for his brother and ushers will be Howell Brown and Glenn William Brown of Clyde, brothers of the bride; Neil McKinnish of Canton, brother of the bridegroom; Milton Brown of Clyde, cousin of the bride; Lewis Rogers of Clyde, and L. A. Coman, Jr. of Canton.

The wedding music will be presented by Miss Janice Smathers of Clyde, pianist, and Miss Sally Nell Wise of Asheville, soloist.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fincher at Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown Honored At Dinner

Fashionable Footprints

Pretty new shoes.

By GRACE THORNCIFFE
SHOWN are some dainty footprints along fashion lane. First is a sort of Cinderella glass slipper in a new version of colorless transparent plastic combined with navy suede. It is a nice choice for summer dress-up occasions. Next is a new version of the ever-welcome spectator sports shoe, this one in natural linen crash with navy kid underlay and buttons on the vamp. Light-weight navy suede is used for an attractive sling back pump with a flyaway punched suede bow draped through a white buckle.

Best For Bait

Fatty fish, such as shad, are best for bait and planking because the scent will keep them from being eaten during the cooking process.
