

Renovation Work Well Under Way At Davis Chapel

MRS. ROY B. MEDFORD
Mountaineer Reporter
Work is progressing very nicely on Davis Chapel, Iron Duff. The inside of the chapel is being completely worked over and memorial windows are being added. The work represents an investment of about $2500.

The W.S.C.S. of Davis Chapel met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Roy B. Medford, with eleven members present. The president, Mrs. T. C. Davis, presided. During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Morris of Philadelphia are visiting relatives in Iron Duff.

Thad Crawford is spending a week at White Lake, Manteo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Justice spent last week end with Mrs. Justice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Medford. They returned to Newport News, Va. on Monday.

Thad Medford is visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Justice, in Newport News.

Orange frosting for a layer cake is easy to make: cream a three-ounce package of cream cheese well, and blend in the grated rind of an orange and a teaspoon of orange juice. Add about two cups of confectioners' sugar, beating well after each addition.

THE YOUNGER SET

By ANNE BISCHOFF

The young people who listened to Evangelist Billy Graham at the Lake Junaluska Assembly auditorium Friday night will long remember the many statements he made concerning the present state of affairs in the world in which we are growing up.

The one fact he failed to bring out in his talk was the fact that we, the young people, the growing, up-and-coming generation are the ones who must bring this light into the darkness of this world.

Mr. Graham based his sermon on darkness and light, with the darkness being the bad condition of the world today and the light being world peace and Christian faith all over the world, which, of course, is in the future.

The dramatic way in which he delivered his address, and the things he said held the attention of the estimated 4,000 listeners from beginning to end. Those who had to stand were overheard to say that it seemed as though he had only been talking about five minutes when actually he talked for over forty-five minutes.

Immaculately dressed and standing over six feet tall, Mr. Graham had the appearance of a college student (he's only in his late twenties), but after hearing the opening prayer of this young evangelist one began to wonder, for his mind seemed to be that of a much older and learned man. His knowledge of current events and happenings in the world today was equal to that of any great statesman, and surpassed many, I suppose.

He knew just what he wanted to say, and he said it and then concluded his sermon.

He was one of the main attractions on the assembly program this year, and one that many people will remember for a while.

Well, it looks like the annuals for Waynesville HI might get here this summer, after all.

The company publishing the books wrote last week and said that they would ship the books around August 1. Whether or not they will do so remains to be seen. (The books were supposed to be here April 10.)

Just as soon as the books arrive, the subscribers will be notified and a day set for autographing at the school.

If you are having trouble deciding how to spend your afternoons these hot days, you might enjoy a matinee at the Strand Theatre in Waynesville on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday afternoons at three o'clock.

Yes, S. E. Tutor, manager of the theatre, has been showing his movies on the three above mentioned afternoons, and whether it is raining or the weather is hot, there is always a crowd at the matinees.

Mr. Feldman, manager of the Reliable Jewelers in Waynesville, has asked again that the 1951 graduates of Waynesville HI drop in and pick up their photo.

He announced earlier this summer that he was giving the pictures that he used in his window decoration during graduation exercises to the members of the '51 graduation class.

All you have to do is stop in and ask for your picture . . . they will be glad to give it to you.

The civic leaders are once again trying to get recreational facilities for the young people in Waynesville, and the proposed election is to be in September.

Almost any town you go into in any state has a swimming pool, and other recreational facilities for the young people who reside there, but what do you find in Waynesville?

We deserve the recreational facilities that the young people of other places enjoy.

It seems to me that the young people are partially to blame for there not being any recreation center here, because more than once a Youth Club has been attempted and has failed due to the lack of support from the young people.

During my recent trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., I had an opportunity to visit the Youth Council in that town.

The Youth Council is located on the boardwalk at the beach. It is just a long wooden building which probably didn't cost a fabulous sum of money to build.

In one end of the room they have a soda bar. In another part they have a juke box and plenty of room to dance. Near the bar they have wicker couches which are placed in a half circle, and magazines and newspapers are placed on tables near these seats.

They have ping-pong tables, pool-tables, and other games in still another end of the one large room.

The sign over the front entrance to the Youth Council reads: "No Adults Allowed; Teen-agers Only." That is responsible for the fact that you see only teen-agers in the Youth Council.

The Council is run by a young man in his twenties, with the help of a young lady about the same age.

The teen-agers there just love to go to the Youth Council because you usually see just about all your friends or classmates there, and you can usually meet lots of new people, too.

This was just an ideal place for young people to spend their time, and if we had something like that here, I don't think that the young people would let it down.

A swimming pool is another thing that we need. The young people here would support a pool, and with the number of youths who go out of town and walk miles just for a swim, it should certainly pay for itself in a short time.

Yes, the young people will help if the adults will just let them.

Old Homestead of Duke Family Opened To Public

The old homestead (above) of Washington Duke, just outside Durham, has been opened to the public each Sunday through the summer until October 1. Sunday visiting hours are from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. The house is on route 501 and is owned by Duke University. It has been restored and appears as it did a century ago. Nearby, Washington Duke built his first crude tobacco factory from which grew the gigantic tobacco and electric power empires of the Duke family. (AP Photo).

Fines Creek Field Day Postponed Until August 10

MRS. SAM FERGUSON
Mountaineer Reporter

Fines Creek Community will be hosts to East Pigeon on August 10 instead of July 25 as previously scheduled. We are looking forward to having a big crowd. We hope to make the visiting community feel welcome and to make the day entertaining for all.

Monday, July 30, is the day set to clean off the cemetery at the Hiram Rogers Church. All people having friends or relatives buried there are asked to help.

Decoration Day will be the second Sunday in August.

Also on the second Sunday, August 12, will be the Homecoming and Dedication of the new Fines Creek Baptist Memorial Church. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Jarvis Teague, formerly of Fines Creek, and now pastor at Marshall.

M. C. Green, Jr., a ministerial student, preached at Fines Creek Memorial Church last Sunday. He is one of our Fines Creek boys, and the community is proud of him.

Reporter Mrs. Sam Ferguson returned home Sunday after a tonsil operation last Tuesday in Asheville. She spent the remainder of the week recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCracken, on Fines Creek.

Among others on the sick list in the community are Mrs. Dallas West, to undergo an operation at Winston-Salem in a few weeks; Mrs. Thomas S. Hood, a patient at St. Joseph's in Asheville; Mrs. Raymond McCracken, Mrs. Betty Seay and Mrs. M. C. Green, Jr., at the Haywood County Hospital; and Miss Lois Ferguson at home.

F. C. Green had the misfortune of falling and breaking a rib Friday.

Mrs. N. C. James and son N. C., Jr. returned to Statesville last week after visiting relatives on Fines Creek.

Major Cecil Brown will have her annual Homecoming at Maple Springs on Sunday, August 5. A large crowd is expected. Major

James R. Cope Is Killed In Train Mishap

Mrs. Helen Green, who has been teaching at Clearwater, Fla., is spending some time on Fines Creek this summer visiting her father, Herman Green, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Green spent the week end visiting their daughter and son-in-law at Hudson, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCracken, their small daughter Barbara, and Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. Nellie Aldridge of West Asheville, spent the week end with Mr. McCracken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCracken. Sam McCracken is a teacher at Sand Hill. He is at present attending summer school at Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Green spent the week end visiting their daughter and son-in-law at Hudson, N. C.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cope; three daughters, Robert, Jr. of Elyria, Ohio, Joe Cope, stationed with the Air Force in Guam, and Ralph Cope of Hazelwood; and two sisters, Mrs. Bernard Bean of Miami, Florida, and Miss Katherine Cope of Hazelwood.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Garrett Funeral Home.

Funeral services were held this afternoon in the Hazelwood Baptist Church for James Ray Cope, 28, who was killed early Saturday morning when struck by a Southern Railway train.

The Rev. M. L. Lewis and the Rev. O. J. Cox officiated and burial was in Green Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Allen Hyatt, Earl Scruggs, H. C. Robinson, Austin Morgan, John Hoyle, Jr., and Howell Bryson.

Cope was a cabinet maker employed by the Unagusta Manufacturing Company. He was a native of Haywood County.

The accident occurred at 12:20 a. m. about 40 feet from the main rail crossing at Hazelwood and was investigated by Dr. J. Frank Pate, Haywood County coroner, and Chief O. L. Sutton of the Hazelwood Police Department.

Pate quoted the engineer as saying that Cope was sitting on the track, evidently asleep, and that the train was too close to stop when he saw him.

The coroner said Cope died as a result of a fractured skull, a crushed chest, and other internal injuries. He said no inquest was held.

T. B. Dutton was engineer of the train and J. N. Williams was conductor.
