

THE YOUNGER SET

By ANNE BISCHOFF

The Hi band students, and present, are certain to be in the spotlight this year at camp.

Alleen is a senior next year, and will more than likely hold solo chair in the band.

Marguerite will be a freshman, and will rank right up with the first chair players, if I am any judge of musicians.

The constant practice that both girls put in accounts to a large extent for the honor chairs they hold. Marguerite is putting in four hours a day on her clarinet, and Alleen puts in quite a few on her flute.

When Mr. Isley returns from summer school, he will surely be proud of his young musicians.

Who is Temptation Jones???

That is one question that is certainly creating a lot of interest around, and lots of people are trying to find the answer.

People are studying the clues that are posted in the various stores in Waynesville and Hazelwood, and some lucky person is going to win a jackpot of prizes.

Only two people in Waynesville are supposed to know who Temptation Jones is—Temptation Jones himself, and a man in charge of the contest.

The Waynesville JayCee's are sponsoring the contest, and the winner will be announced at the JayCee dance next week.

Secretaries Bulletin Wins Special Mention In Judging At National Convention

The Bulletin of the Mountaineer Chapter of the National Secretaries Association was singled out for particular praise at the National Convention in Houston. Mary Medford, president of the local chapter, reports that the Bulletin placed eleventh among entries from more than 300 chapters.

In making the report of the national bulletin committee, the chairman noted that she had read the Mountaineer bulletin for six months before she learned, to her amazement, that the chapter had only 11 members. She had been "borrowing" ideas from it for recommendations to much larger chapters.

Mrs. Louise Stahl is Bulletin editor.

The Los Angeles Rams have the fastest end-in-pro football—Bob Boyd, 1950 NCAA sprint champion and a 9.5 second 100-yard dash man.

Harold Boswell, 190-pound guard on the University of Arizona freshman football team, wears glasses and a protective face guard on the field.

Slightly Wounded

Martin Burdette McClure, SA, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. McClure of Lake Junaluska, received a minor neck injury when his ship, the USS Everett, was hit at Won San on July 4. Ten men were reported injured and one killed in the bombardment. McClure is now in Japan.

McClure enlisted in the Navy last December, and received his basic training at San Diego. He is a graduate of Clyde High School and was employed at the Dixie Home Store in Waynesville prior to his enlistment.

Perennial Middle

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—(AP)—William E. Farrell, who occupied the first room in the Naval Academy's historic dormitory, Bancroft Hall, nearly 50 years ago and has been at the Academy almost ever since, began loafing as a retired professor this summer.

Farrell, 65, retired from the Department of Marine Engineering in June. He had been a professor for years. Farrell entered Annapolis as a plebe (freshman) 47 years ago. He would have received a commission but for a knee injury received while rowing in a Navy shell a short time before his class graduated.

He was under treatment for almost five years, then joined the faculty as an instructor in Naval Steam Engineering.

Even now he won't be too far away from the seat of the Gold and Blue. He and Mrs. Farrell live only a few blocks from the main gate.

Valued Metal

The United States—despite its part in the discovery of the metal and the fact that columbium was named for "Columbia"—is negligible as a source. At peak periods, this nation has accounted for only a few thousand pounds annually, gained in connection with mica, quartz, beryl, and other mining.
