The young man could not bring himself to part with his wealth, however, and so he turned sorrowfully away...
... Now we turn to St. Paul's letters to the Thessalonians, where Paul writes: "That ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you."
... "That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing."

... Again, Paul reminds the Thessalonians that, while he was with them, "we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you."
... "Neither did we eat any man's bread for naught; but wrought with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you."
... "Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample (example) unto you to follow us."
... "For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat."
... As a matter of fact, life holds few satisfactions that surpass that of knowing we have done a job well and in a workmanlike manner. Whether it be digging ditches, planting a flower garden, building a house or furnishing it after it is built.
... Bookkeeping, typing, writing, selling—no matter what our work is—we can get a wonderful feeling when we do it and do it well. Not only that, but it is a benefit to the world at large, because it shows the solid character of the worker, and the world needs such.

BRACELETS

Handcuffs are made of steel—the stuff with which we build bridges and skyscrapers and churches!

But all men have not learned to build. Some have learned to destroy.

Hence, in a land where men treasure freedom, there must be handcuffs for some in order that the rights of all may be safeguarded.

But there is a better way. Religious training is a sure vaccine against the spiritual disease that produces criminals. The Church can provide our children with the God-given moral foundations on which life should be built.

And which is the stronger safeguard of the things we hold dear? A pair of steel "bracelets" ... or a Church crowded with eager children and conscientious parents?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
