Dick Stockton of Winston-Salem is spending this week at the Lake with his brother, Tom Stockton.

Martha Vance Is Bride Of Pvt. R. R. Wells

Miss Martha June Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vance of Canton, became the bride of Pvt. Robert Reeves Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Resgen Wells, also of Canton, Tuesday evening in Long's Methodist Church.

The Rev. Gay Chambers, pastor of the Spring Hill Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, Queen Ann's lace, and palms interspersed with seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Grace Erwin, pianist, and Miss Norma Bramlett, vocalist.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a white dressmaker suit with navy accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple throated white orchid and showered with carnations and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Gerald Blazer was matron of honor. She wore a navy checked suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

The bridegroom had as his best man Gerald Blazer of Canton. Ushers were Jack Harkins, cousin of the bride, and Joe Wells, cousin of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The table was covered with an imported lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with gladioli and lighted tapers. Assisting in serving were Mrs. M. V. Bramlett, Miss Frances Blalock, Mrs. Wilson Medford, Mrs. Howard Cook, and Miss Betty Sue Vance.

Mrs. Vance, mother of the bride, wore a pink dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore black with orchid accessories and an orchid corsage.

Pvt. and Mrs. Wells

Pvt. and Mrs. Robert Reeves Wells were married Tuesday evening in Long's Methodist Church. Mrs. Wells is the former Miss Martha June Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vance of Canton.

Mrs. Wells is a graduate of Bethel High School. At present she is stationed at Camp McCoy in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Stamey Fetes Miss Wyche At Party Today

Mrs. M. G. Stamey was hostess this morning at a coffee in compliment to Miss Jane Wyche, whose marriage to Archie Craft of Wilmington will take place August 11.

Arrangements of mixed flowers decorated the living rooms and the bridal motif was observed in the dining room. The coffee table was covered with a white hem-stitched linen cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli, white baby dallas, and gypsophyllia in an antique silver compote.

The bride-elect was presented a plate handpainted in a mountain laurel design.

Mrs. William I. Lee greeted the guests upon arrival and with her were Miss Lois Harrold, during the first hour, and Mrs. W. F. Swift during the second hour.

The receiving line was composed of the hostess and the honor guest and of the latter's mother, Mrs. Troy Wyche.

Miss Anne Albright received at the entrance to the dining room and presiding at the coffee table were Mrs. T. L. Gwyn and Mrs. J. R. McCracken the first hour and Miss Nancy Killian and Miss Margaret Terrell the second hour.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Henry Foy, Miss Mary Lu Elwood, Miss Marguerite Way and Miss Rosemary Herman.

Around fifty guests were included in the courtesy.
