Wins UDC Scholarship

Malcolm Williamson, Jr., has been notified by the Educational Committee of the N. C. Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy that he has been awarded the Lucy London Anderson scholarship in the amount of $200 at the University of North Carolina for the year 1951-52.

The scholarship is good for each of the four years in college in the same amount as the first year as long as the student maintains a good scholastic record.

Malcolm was sponsored by the Haywood Chapter of the UDC of which Mrs. Sam Queen is president. Mrs. Dan Tompkins of Sylva is the chairman of the N. C. division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

He was eligible to apply for the scholarship as a lineal descendant of a Confederate veteran. He is the great-grandson of the Rev. Albert Allison James who served as Chaplain during the war between the States with the 18th regiment of South Carolina Volunteers.

Earlier in the summer Malcolm was awarded one of the top scholarships at Western Carolina Teachers College in a competitive contest in which 95 high school seniors from Western North Carolina competed. He has declined this scholarship because of other plans for his college work.

Malcolm is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Malcolm R. Williamson. He graduated from the Waynesville Township High School this past spring.

Judge and Mrs. J. J. Burney of Wilmington are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. J. P. Dicus.

Carl Hookstra of Beaufort, S. C., is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Henry Krag, at her home on Hill Street.

Active Weekend For Young People At Long's Chapel

Sunday services at Long's Chapel Methodist Church, of which Rev. Paul H. Duckwall is pastor, will begin at 9:45 a.m. with Sunday School classes for all age groups. At 11 a.m. the pastor will give a sermon entitled, "In His Will is Our Peace". At 7:30 p.m. all youth in the community are invited to the Methodist Youth Fellowship hour.

The August meeting of the Haywood County Subdistrict of the Methodist Youth Fellowship will be held Monday at the Morning Star Methodist Church. Young people, attending, are asked by Rev. Duckwall to meet at the church at 5 p.m. with a picnic lunch. The recreational program will begin at 5:30; the picnic supper will be at 6:30. Highlighting the evening activity will be a movie.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its August meeting on Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. A. J. McCracken. Mrs. Leonard Dotson will serve as co-hostess. In charge of the program will be Mrs. Rufus Reeves and Mrs. Soesbee.
