No Winner Yet As Kids End Season

The Knee Pants League ended its season Thursday, but as yet the winner is not known. According to Gene Wyatt, whose position corresponds to the one lately held by Happy Chandler in the major leagues, a number of games were forfeited and a meeting of managers will be necessary before the winner can be decided. Four teams, he said, may each have won.

No date has as yet been set for the meeting. Nevertheless, maintained Mr. Wyatt, "It was a very successful season. Some boys were discovered who have natural talent that may carry them far, but much of the credit belongs to the managers who donated their time and were as interested as the kids themselves."

A picnic is being planned for all 140 boys who played in the league, but the date will wait on the decision as to the winner. Gold baseballs will be awarded to the winning team and to the team displaying the best sportsmanship.
