Christian's Respect for the Law

HE THAT KEEPETH THE LAW, HAPPY IS HE."
—PROVERBS 29:18

Scripture—Luke 20:19-26; Acts 22:28-29; 23:23-27; Romans 13:1-7; 1 Peter: 13-17.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
MATTER of tax payment in all our business is a most timely one. It is constantly being brought to our notice through news items and stories in our papers.

Paul, in entering the temple at this time, had taken with him some Gentiles. They listened to what he had to say, but then they cried out, "Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live."

Paul was bound and about to be scourged when he spoke to the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?"

to Caesar, or not?"
He answered them, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's."

at this time a great dissension broke out among the Jews themselves, one group wanting to set Paul free and another desiring to slay him. Again he was rescued by the Roman soldiers and kept in custody for his own safety.

CONVERSATION

A parrot can talk. But he can only say the things he has heard!

Human conversation is not so far removed from parrot-talk as we might like to believe. We too base most of our conversation on the things we have heard. But we digest thoughts that have been given us, consider them, make them our own, and then repeat them in our own words.

And yet, unlike the parrots, we influence others by the gift of speech. Our words can brighten or darken the lives of many people.

The God who has given us the gift of speech has also given us access to Truth. The spiritual knowledge we gain as we worship and study in our churches is the key to what the Bible calls "a holy conversation."

And that doesn't mean using pious phrases! It means using the gift of speech to help, rather than hurt, ourselves and others.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
