tendance of over seven hundred, bringing the week's total to nearly fifteen hundred.

The final tour for this week has been announced, with Crabtree visiting South Clyde on Friday. Crabtree persons making the trip have been asked to meet at C. T. Ferguson's store at 8:30 a. m.

Another high attendance figure was reached on Friday, when East Pigeon visited Fines Creek. A total of 266 persons took part in the day. Special singing included a solo by Dorothea Greenby of Fines Creek. She was accompanied by the Rev. Okei Evans. East Pigeon furnished a duet composed of Patsy Deaver and Mrs. Robert Justice. Mr. Evans led the Fines Creek group singing, and Junior Sorrells was in charge of East Pigeon's.

East Pigeon enjoyed the day by defeating their hosts in nearly every sporting event. Both softball teams won, the girls by the score of 9-5, and the boys by a comfortable 22-4. Fines Creek girls won their horse shoe pitching for their community's one victory. Christine Ledford and Regina Ferguson were the ranking team. East Pigeon's victors were Gaston Burnette and Howard Kuykendall and Sherman Goodson. Losers were Lawrence Kirkpatrick and Bruce Kirkpatrick. Gladys Bradshaw and Margaret Carpenter, Maxine Smith and Martha Metcalfe, and McClain Justice and Clayton Paine.

With winners to be announced later, tractor driving featured Tom Brummitt, Henry Hyde, Milas McCracken, Kenneth Deaver, Martha Kuykendall, Mary Jane McCrary, Nellie Grant and Regina Ferguson.

Saunook-Upper Crabtree Features Singing

The visit Saturday of Saunook to Upper Crabtree might have been termed a "battle of music." Both communities were able to furnish a number of musical specialties. Mrs. C. O. Newell led group singing for Upper Crabtree, and Bernice Smathers that of Saunook.

Featured singers were Adeline Best, Loraine Sanford and Helen Hill of Crabtree, who sang a trio; Betty and Jean Roland, who sang a duet; Jean Bradshaw, Jane Sanford, Jean Roland, Annie Noland and Patricia Messer of Crabtree. An accordian solo was the contribution of Edith McCracken of Saunook. Other musicians were Bernice Smathers, Mary Evelyn Plemons, Arthurine Mehaffey, William Plemons and Kenneth Smathers.

The softball victories were divided. Saunook boys defeated Upper Crabtree 6-2; and Upper Crabtree girls handed a loss to Saunook girls 8-2.

No victor was announced in the tractor-driving contest. Entrants were Mrs. Roy Stephens, Heshel Stevens and Joe Sparks of Saunook; and David Rogers, Betty Ruth Ferguson and Max Sanford of Upper Crabtree.

Beaverdam Hosts to Center Pigeon Second of Saturday's intercommunity field days was Center Pigeon's visit to Beaverdam. A total of 230 persons attended the event.

The visitors took a slight lead over their hosts in the sport events, as the girls' softball team won 3-2 and their men's, women's and boys' horse shoe teams defeated those of Beaverdam. In the latter, Hardin Pressley and Weaver Sheffield, Mrs. James Edwards and Edith Cook, and Bobby Henderson and Jack Chason were victors. Losers were Robert Harris and Ed Bell, Stella Best and Mabel Harris, and Clyde Warren and Bobby Moore.

Beaverdam's victorious ringmasters were Sue Surratt and Kate Worley, who defeated Madeline Blaylock and Doris Pressley. The Beaverdam boys' softball team defeated Center Pigeon 12-7.

Tractor-driving contestants were Eva Jane Worley, Doris Pressley, Mrs. Wayne Stamey, Bob Sorrells, George Stamey, Jerry Wells and Charles Clark.
