Fines Cr. Baptist
Homecoming Day
Draws Crowd

MRS. SAM FERGUSON
Mountaineer Reporter

Sunday was Homecoming Day at Fines Creek Baptist Church, with people coming from far and near.
The Rev. Jarvis Teague delivered the morning sermon. Choirs and quartets sang during the afternoon, and N. H. Ferguson, a former Fines Creek resident, made a talk. Decoration of graves continued through the day.
Announcement was made by the pastor, W. N. Reece, that services at the Fines Creek Memorial Baptist Church have been changed from the first and third Sundays in the month to the second and fourth Sundays.

Friday Fines Creek Community were hosts to East Pigeon. Details of the field day appear elsewhere in the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Turlington and family of Newport News, Va., have been visiting in this section. They have also been guests of Mrs. Turlington's mother, Mrs. J.
W. Roberts of Dellwood Road.
Mrs. Turlington is the former Miss Lucille Ferguson of Fines Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. McCracken and family of Hartford, Conn., are spending several days with Mr.
McCracken's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles B. McCracken.

Herman Green, who has been on the sick list for some time, has the wishes of the community for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson and children are spending a few days in Fayetteville as the guests of Mr.
Ferguson's sister, Mrs. J. B. Webb.

A number of new buildings are going up along Fines Creek. Glenn Noland and Wiley Ledford are building new houses. Hugh Ferguson has just completed a new tenant house, and is building a silo.
F. C. Green has built a new tobacco barn. Davis Price, France Rogers and Joe Kirkpatrick are building additions to their barns for tobacco.
Reeves Ferguson is adding a new kitchen to his house.
The section has had two or three nice rains recently, rains which were badly needed. Crops, especially corn and tobacco, were beginning to suffer.
