Edgecombe Group Making Tour Of Haywood County
A group of 40 farmers led by their county agent, Joe C. Powell, arrived here yesterday from Edgecombe County to make a tour of Haywood farms. After attending the drama at Cherokee, they returned to spend the night here.
Their tour today includes a stop at the poultry farm of Hilliard Moody; the Graeceland Farm of M. O. Galloway where beef cattle will be the point of interest; the dairy farm of D. Reeves Noland; the State Test Farm, and the County Home Farm.
Accompanying them from Haywood County are Wayne Copenning, Herbert Singletary, and a highway patrolman.
Tall Corn Isn't All
DES MOINES — (AP) — In the Senate recently Sen. Benton (D-Conn.) reading excerpts from a new Soviet encyclopedia, quoted this item about Iowa.
"State in the middle west of the United States . . . Large capitalist farms provide the basic production. All farmers are in great debt to the banks, and farmers' debts, even in the case of full owners, are more than 50 per cent of the value of the farms."
Ralph Kiner, slugging star for the Pittsburgh Pirates, was born in Santa Rita, New Mexico.
