Two Field Days Saturday End Successful Season

Two well attended field days Saturday wound up this year's schedule of community farm and home tours. Ratcliffe Cove played host to Beaverdam, and Allens Creek journeyed to Iron Duff. Attendance at the former event totaled well over two hundred; and 189 were present at the latter.

Several musical numbers were featured during the Iron Duff program. Mrs. C. O. Newell lead singing for the entire combined groups, as well as for Iron Duff. Bill Hembree was song leader for Allens Creek, with daughter Mary Jo Hembree as pianist. Allens Creek furnished a duet composed of Winnie Farmer and Joyce Caldwell.

The two communities split the softball games, with the visiting boys victorious 3-1 and the host girls winning 8-1. Referees were Melvin Early and Tommy Owen.

Iron Duff took two out of three in both men's and women's divisions of horse shoe pitching. There were no other classes. Contestants were Jack Long and Fred Brindle, and Mrs. Brindle and Ava McC Clure. Allens Creek competitors were Moody Farmer and Earl Allen and Mrs. Cordy Allen and Mrs. Susie Craig.

Harley Caldwell drove the tractor course in 55 seconds, equalling the old record since broken. Other entrants in the contest were Dan Davis, Lloyd Buchanan, Mrs. Edith Milner, Mrs. DeWeese, Sybil Bradshaw, Bonnie Hendrix and Don Franklin.

Equally good weather and an equally enthusiastic crowd made up the Beaverdam-Ratcliffe Cove field day. Group singing was enjoyed under the direction of Willie West of Beaverdam and Nancy Leopard of Ratcliffe Cove. The Surrett Sisters of Beaverdam gave two numbers, and Miss Leopard gave a solo. Another soloist was Iva Lee Messer of Ratcliffe Cove.

Ratcliffe Cove boys' softball team nosed out their guests 5-4. The Beaverdam girls swamped Ratcliffe Cove 13-2.

Horseshoe pitching contestants were Mrs. Hugh Francis, Mrs. Ollie Francis, Bob Francis, Jack Felmet, Wade Francis, Ralph Jenkins, Betty Felmet and Nancy Leopard of the Cove; and Carl Best, Fred Best, and Clay Scott, as well as others from Beaverdam.

Competing on the tractor course were Nancy Medford, Betty Felmet, Jackie Felmet, T. T. Muse, Mrs. Robert Harris, Iva Lee Worley, Charles Clark and Walter Brown.

PTA To Observe Film Projector Demonstration

Members of the Morning Star Parent Teacher Association have been invited to attend the demonstration of the new slide and film strip projector presented the school last year by the PTA. E. C. Duckett, principal, will exhibit the equipment at the school on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Miss Helen Smathers, program chairman, has urged all parents to come for the demonstration and a general inspection of the school's facilities.

At a recent meeting of the executive council called by Mrs. Howard Cole, president, tentative plans for the organization's activities were made. First on the list of goals is enlargement of the number of parents participating in the monthly programs and various other activities throughout the year.

Mrs. Cole recently returned from the Greensboro Conference of North Carolina PTA officers with numerous plans for increasing the effectiveness of the local chapter.

Each parent has been asked to set aside the third Wednesday afternoon of each month for taking part in the meeting.
