coached by C. C. Poindexter and composed of former Canton High School football stars will meet the Western Carolina Teachers College B team at the local field. A squad of around 30 former Black Bear greats began drills Monday afternoon in preparation for this game. They are working at the Canton stadium at 5:30 each afternoon this week under the direction of C. C. Poindexter, for whom most of them played during his 13-year tenure as head coach at Canton High. Among the all-stars who have reported for practice so far are: Backs: Butch Smathers, Bobby Moore, Carlson Hipps, Buster Trull, Don Hipps, Junior Rhymer, Nazi Miller, Clyde Miller, and Bill Flynn. Ends: Joe Medlin, John Rhodamer, Eugene Grogan and Jim Howard. Tackles: Guy Ward, John Holland, Bill Harkins, Bob Smathers, Boyd Allen, Carroll Pressley, and Neil McKinnish. Guards: J. C. Ward, Bill Sutton, Jim Morgan, Gene Mackey, Roy Ingle, and C. W. Hardin. This game is sponsored annually by the CHS Alumni Monogram Club for the benefit of Canton High School athletic activities. Officers of the club are Al Phillips, Charles Carroll and C. S. Owen, who are currently conducting a campaign to enroll in the club all former students who earned athletic letters at Canton High. On the roster of Coach Tom Young's Kittymounts Saturday night will be several former stars at Waynesville High, giving the game a flavor of the traditional rivalry that has existed for more than a quarter of a century between the Black Bears and the Mountaineers. Following the game Saturday

DEATHS

MRS. RIXIE RATHBONE

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Olivet Baptist Church at Maggie for Mrs. Rixie Evans Rathbone, 84, of the Fines Creek community, widow of the late Jethro Rathbone, who died Monday in the Haywood County Hospital after a brief illness. night both football squads will be guests of honor at a free square dance at the Canton Armory, tendered by the Canton Recreation Commission with the popular Carpenter String Band providing the music.

Blind 'Justice'

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Justice has always been described as blind. And Laverne Crawford is willing to concede that fact, although not in the usual sense.

Crawford, a truck driver, was a witness to a shooting here recently. But since he can't raise enough money for bond, he is being held in jail as a material witness. It may be six months before the case is completed.

The accused slayer, meanwhile, is out of jail—free under $15,000 bond.

brothers, Alvin Hoyle of Route 3, Waynesville and John Hoyle of Jackson County; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Williams of Route 3, Waynesville and Mrs. Alpha Williams of Whittier.

Can You Spare a Few Pennies and Nickels?

...the nation is running out of small change, according to the Comptroller of Currency, and this appeal is being made to "turn loose" all the pennies and nickels now stored in "piggy banks."

THE FRIENDLY BANK

Copper is being used for defense projects, and the Mint is unable to meet the present extraordinary demand for pennies and nickels.

Be patriotic and convert your small change now idle around the home in currency, and put the pennies and nickels back to work
