

Community Meeting To Erect Signs West Pigeon Line

EDGAR BURNETTE, Reporter

Community Development at the Cecil School building, it was decided to erect signs to be placed along the West Pigeon line near the River. This sign would be on those put up by the groups in the county.

Mrs. J. H. Reece and Mrs. G. L. Warren, Jr., assisted Mrs. T. E. Erwin on Wednesday evening in honoring Mrs. Paul Erwin with a shower. Games were under the direction of Mrs. Warren, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Reece and Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Byrd of Chase City, Va., were the supper guests on Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller.

Mrs. Ruth Sorrels, Mrs. Mollie Reece, Mrs. Verlie Singleton, Mrs. Allie Ledbetter, Mrs. Elsie Long, and Mrs. Maggie Erwin, were dinner guests last Wednesday of Mrs. Walter Long at her home.

Pfc. Erwin Grooms, now stationed in Germany, has bought the Ennis Warren place where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Grooms are now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warren have bought the John Siske farm in the Edwards Cove and will soon move in. They are remodeling the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden Warren, R. A. Warren, Mrs. Dolce Clarke and children Douglas and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Hubb Clarke and Misses Mary Kate Phillips and Evelyn Calhoun spent four days last week attending the Universalist Church conference at Red Hill. They returned home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nora Browning and children Harold and Margaret left last Thursday by motor to visit her son, Jay Browning and his family, at Darrington, Washington. They will also visit Mrs. Browning's sister, Mrs. Pleasant Crawford, and family.

Bradwin Hargrove of Newport News, Va., is visiting his family here this week. When a house is available he will send for his family.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Mrs. Rosa Inman Rogers who died last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Erwin announce the birth of a daughter, Anita Sharon, on October 5, at the Haywood County Hospital. Mrs. Erwin is the guest of the Max Burnettes this week.

On the sick list this week are Miss Alma Chambers and Mrs. Coy Pressley.

The Rev. W. L. Broome of Lake Junaluska, supply pastor, filled an appointment at the Susan Inman Memorial Methodist Church last Sunday night. Church members observed World-Wide Communion service. The present schedule calls for Mr. Broome to preach the third Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson have moved to Retreat from their home on McClure's Creek.

The Cecil Home Demonstration club women are sending a large assortment of canned goods and handicrafts for exhibits to the State Fair in Raleigh to help pay the expenses of the County delegates.

Cpl. Jay Paul Cooke is spending a 15-day leave at home. He will return to Camp Rucker, Ala., on October 16, and expects to be sent overseas in November.

Lawrence Birchfield has received his discharge from the armed forces and is now employed by the Hinkle Plumbing Company of Canton. He formerly worked at the Chrysler Corporation in Detroit.

Lee Birchfield is in Johnson City, Tenn., with his brother Baxter Birchfield, who has been ill for some time.

ADD—CECH—Miss Mary Mauney entertained Monday at her home in Retreat. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. R. W. Cobbs of Blackstone, Va., Mrs. Sallie Bullock of Falmouth, Va., and Mrs. Mary Haire and Mrs. Anna Archer of Jonesboro, Tenn. Others attending were Mrs. G. C. Paxton of Canton and Mrs. A. L. Yarbrough and Mrs. J. M. Gaddy of Lake Junaluska.

INVENTED HIS OWN 'FLYING DEATH'

JUST A SHORT TIME before he made a fatal test of a home-made "flying wing," James P. Martin, 34, a war veteran, stands beside the invention that carried him to death at the Torrance, Calif., Airport. The plane, resembling the center section of a large wing, rose to 300 feet and then nose-dived and crashed in a nearby field. (International Soundphoto)

Singing Concert To Be Held In Asheville Soon

Of some interest locally is the concert, sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose, to be held at Asheville's City Auditorium Saturday night at 8:00. Among the other attractions will be Troy Lampkin, formerly a member of the Statesman Quartet.
