THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

delights of The News

Expanding Town a wonderful asset, people take considerable ing progressive enters the case of Dave Felcalled the Mayor of Frog

Depot Street, and made entinuing the paving out No. 284. and up No. 19 to the Mayor of F. L. told ain street of Frog Level paved all the way from le to Qualla Boundary."

Situation

Queen takes his job as of the Court House very e takes pride in his work, esday was faced with ntain in the lobby which function properly.

was disturbed, and echanical assistance in e faulty fountain working was found that consider would be necessary, t a box and turned it upover the fountain to in was out of order. od nearby and directed omers to the soft drink operated for the Boy ou heard of the water the state-we need rain We're saving water," he ss Venture

a long recital to the e next door the pretty girl explained why she a boy she had "broken and forever with" the re. Then, in the fashion young generation, she changed the subject and that are 'ethics'; I'm goe a course in it soon." ing husband, who was somewhat impatient for interrupted to answer: is something a woman like a beard, eh?" was is reply

Frees Prisoners

boy scouts of Canton o admit now that Sheriynesville Monday night, The jailer was away and was necessary to free ger eager scouts. They'd el" of it and they weren't hey liked it.

Has Competitors

sser is finding it difficult it just a coincidence?

trate on football games He was assured by Unable to get away for ountaineer home game, signedly at home, But aoar of the crowd and the the radio, came a new was loud and persistent. diately called the police promptly arrived. The ers were taken away with lent, "We've picked up everything for disturbace, but never two mules lles had strayed from a wood 100% nizations Schools lowing organizations have ent behind the school exgram here in Haywood ers are expected to be ille Rotary in Legion, Post No. 47 Boosters ind warm; Friday, fair ange in temperature.

Waynesville temperarded by the staff of the

66th YEAR NO. 84 16 PAGES

Associated Press

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 18, 1951 $3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

State and National Park Officials Enjoy Visit To Mile High Overlook

As part of their two-day tour, and business session in the Smokies, t'he party visited the new section of the Parkway Tuesday, and then continued on to Heintooga, down through Round Bottoms, and to Bryson City for lunch. Shown here, left to right: John C. Preston, new superintendent of the Park; Dave Felmet, president Waynesvil le Chamber of Commerce; Charles E. Ray, vice chairman of the N. C. Park Commission; Conrad L. Wirth, assistant director of the Park Service, will become director in December; Sam P. Weems, superintendent of the Blue Ridge Parkway; Mr. White, assistant director of the Park, and Arthur E. Demaray, director of the Park, who has announced his retirement in December, (Staff Photo).

Parkway Given Warm Praise By New Yorkers

from New York drove up, and the ter of generations". d the jail. According to couple got out and were admiring He explained, however, that presthe view.

heir request he put ten ficial capacity of the several cars to take care of increased use". Call- proved at the Haywood Hospital, tell and closed the door. of Park men, continued to scan the ing upon the people to make Con- where he is a patient suffering from w, the door got off its landscape, and then suddenly, the gress aware of the need. Mr. Demthe scouts were really young lady exclaimed:

perior to that from Clingman's Her escort agreed.

Arthur E. Demary, director of the National Park Service, smiled. and-looked about, as he asked: "Was that a planned act, or was

He was assured by all the Haywood persons present it was a common "coincidence."

State Road Work Covers Street Also

out to the Dellwood Road, and from istered by the Park Service.

tion with US 23 to Soco Gap and derway, and is being welcomed as Carolina stops great improvement and vital to the lone on record as being enjoyment of the newly opened link of the Parkway.

be completed soon.

Richland Baptist Holding Revival

Full Development Of Park Fans Line Future Generation's Job

head injuries sustained in an autothrown some 30 feet from the de-still underway.

pointed out

Retiring Park Director A. E. National Park officials got "an Demaray told a joint Tennesseeearful" Tuesday morning as they North Carolina group, meeting 5 Canton Teenvisited Mile High Overlook, on the Monday in Gatlinburg and Tues-day at Heintooga Ridge, that full Agers Narrowly Just a few minutes prior to the development of the Great Smoky whing he undertakes, arrival of the official party, a car Mountains National Park "is a mat- Escape In Wreck ent development has reached the Canton football player was report-The couple unaware of the of- point where "We need more money ed this morning as "slightly imaray said, "We need camp grounds, "This view, I believe, is far su- comfort stations, and water facilities, and we are proceeding to de- 1950 car which was demolished velop them wherever possible."

> In continuing, Diretor Demvelopment to that of Gatlinburg. and he advised the North Carolina Commission not to repeat "Gatlinburg's mistake"; the creation of a bottleneck at a park gateway.

addressed the group. He assured everyone that the new administration would mean "no major change" in Park policy which, he explained later, was that of creatng a wilderness area for future generations.

Wirth also promised that the Waynesville is getting a street mistakes of World War II "in which paved at the expense of the State we cut ourselves without being askas part of a bigger project. Begin- ed to" would not be repeated. The ning at the junction of Main and result, he added, was a consider-Depot Street the paving continues able deterioration of lands admin-

A series of field trips was made The overall project includes the by the two state commissions, with widening of US 19 from its june- Heintooga Ridge, Bryson City, and the Parkway. Work is already un-

Work on the street is expected to Two More Canneries To Close For Season

Two more closing dates for counly canneries have been announced by Mrs. Rufus Siler, superintendent. The cannery at Bethel will be A revival is in progress at the open for the last time on Tuesday. Richland Baptist Church, with the After that time, however, appoint-Rev. George Mehaffey preaching, ments may be made for its use. The Services begin each evening at 7:30 Fines Creek cannery has closed for p. m. The public is invited to at- the season, exceut by appointment for meat canning.

Civic Group To Publicize Agriculture And Industry of a board of directors in Decem- folders recently published ber. The nominating committee

Max. Min. Rainfall to further publicize industry and representing agriculture.

The Chamber of Commerce set similar to the presentation or the into motion plans for the election tourist business in the current

Dave Felmet, president, named will report, and set plans in No- C. D. Thompson, Harry Bourne, and L. K. Barber to represent industry, The directors also named a spec- with Wayne Corpening, M. R. ial committee to proceed with plans Whisenhunt and M. O. Galloway agriculture in Haywood. An illus- The nominating committee is trated booklet is planned, which composed of James L. Kilpatrick, will portray the two projects here Paul Hyatt and William S. Ray.

Up Fast For Grid Contest

Entries are pouring in from old and young alike. Guesses are varied on almost every game listed in the contest, and, in regards to mobile wreck at 9:45 Tuesday night. School game, they range from 14 the score of the Waynesville-Christ Sheppard was one of five in a points to 45.

when it wrecked about a half mile noon at 5 o'clock, and no entries have been announced by Mr. Mas- the stores and eating places in Hay- in connection with a new state law from the Canton city limits on the will be accepted after that hour. aray compared the Soco Gap de- Stamey Cove road, Patrolman Har- Blanks may be mailed or brought old Dayton this morning said the in person to the Mountaineer office. celebration will be an exhibit of Cogburn, Lawrence Cogburn and individual county, Mr. Francis had investigation of the accident was Winners will be announced Mon-clear of the car. Sheppard was lose molished vehicle, the patrolman Mr and Mrs Ben Colkitt left The officer said that those with Va., where they are spending the (See Teen-Agers-Page 8) week-end.

Football fans in this area were quick to take advantage of their knowledge and the chance offered them by the Mountaineer to win $10.00 by using it in the football contest that began this week.

The contest closes Friday afterday

Patrolman Dayton said that the There will be a new contest each car left the pavement in a sharp week with a new $10.00 prize. At being made to have an out-of-Conrad L. Wirth, who succeeds curve, hit a bank, rolled over, and the end of the season the person county judge for these apples. Demaray on December 8th, also came to a standstill in an upright with the highest score will be position. The car went some 250 awarded a grand prize, but, to be feet from the time of the first ap- elegible, each contest must be enplication of brakes, the officer said, tered. There is nothing to buy, office by Thursday. Each exhibit morning to pick up their material their apples to the county agent's The five occupants were thrown and plenty of fun for all-win or will consist of 36 apples, and the It is suggested that they meet at orchardman gan show as many ex- 9:30 o'clock to get this material out.

this afternoon for Williamsburg, like

School Bond Election Changes Necessitated By Ranger Predicts Color To Technical Points in

Will Set New DateFor

Statues Governing Such Bonds. Officials and their attorneys today unraveled a mass of red tape relative to the school bond election.

At the bottom of the heap they found the election would have to be held about one or two weeks later than first thought, It looked this morning as if the new date would be about December first. The exact date will be determined at a special meeting of M. J. Becker, the Wagon Road Gap, the board of commissioners on October 29th. Officials have been in constant contact with the bonding attorneys, and it was found that certain statues governing the sale of bonds called for longer time on this nounced this morning that the at the peak this week-end and next, county attorney, W. R. Francis, to- Ranger Becker said. gether with J. R. Morgan, are tricts-Haywood and Beaverdam, Laurel and Long Branch slopes, report, and resolutions of the Bea- from the 21st to the 27th. and elections.

offered for sale," they explained hibits and varieties as he would

Band Is $300 Richer Through Generosity Of Boosters Club

The committee in charge of mak-

Apple Week Celebration

To Feature Exhibit At Bank

county. Plans for National Apple Massey and Pink Francis.

Hugh Massie has been named ing and decorating the stand at the

Be At Best This Weekend

Mother Nature's annual fall color show is on, with Forest Hangers predicting the peak this week-end Jubilee Has and next.

has turned into one of the most brilliant, and colorful in years. According to Parkway Ranger and Pink Beds will be at their best this week-end, and the colors are "out of this world." tic, and said: "It surpasses all I've noon at 2 o'clock.

ever seen. Be sure to tell the public to drive on down Highway No. amount, than had been anticipated. 276 to the Pink Beds." The board of commissioners an- The Soco Gap area will also be receive their prizes.

working with the bonding attorneys High Overlook last week-end, were will be made. They include a gold in order to get the legal details somewhat disappointed at the ap- framed mirror, a beautiful table completed in the shortest time pos- parent lack of color. By Tuesday lamp, and an electric Mixmaster. the picture had changed complete-The bonding attorneys held that ly, with gorgeous colors every-and since both would participate in Ranger Becker predicts that the the county-wide election, it was best color will be seen in the Soco necessary to go back and get a full Gap area, and along the Parkway lapse of time as required by the color is the Beech Gap area in at home present laws governing bonds sales Sherwood Forest. Ranger Becker suggested that motorists drive to The two attorneys pointed out the Parkway gate at Beech Gap, that each step of the proceedure and then walk along the Parkway is being carried out under the sup- through the tunnel and out to the ervision of the bond experts, "Fol- Court House ridge. A walk of lowing such a course will save much about 3 miles, for a colorful view of time and money when bonds are the Sherwood and Pisgah Forest

The publicity committee consists

What appeared several weeks ago might be a dull color season. Four Awards For Saturday

TODAY'S SMILE The Mrs.; Durling, that awful woman next door has a new fall

The Mrs.: Well, dear, it would be cheaper than moving.

The second of the series of awards in the current Trade Jubilee will be made at the high school The ranger was most enthusias- football stadium Saturday after-

Last week an estimated 3,500 people filled the stadium. All four of the winners were on hand to

The grand prize Saturday will be a complete living room suiter Many motorists going to Mile- but three other valuable awards

The series will continue every week at the same time and place since Haywood has two school dis- where, especially on the Wolf until December 15th. Then comes the grand prize of all grand prizes a 1951 Buick.

Merchants of Waynesville, Hazz elwood and Lake Junaluska area. are sponsoring the Jubilee in an verdam set-up. This required some Another spot that is fast become effort to persuade the local shopper. time, and added to the necessary ing a mecca for those who enjoy that his best bargains can be found-

No Hearing Planned On Dog Issue

Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners C. C. Francis, announced today that very few people had expressed any interest in the question of appointing a dog warden for Haywood County chairman of the National Apple First National Bank is, Joe Boone, that under the circumstances no Week Committee for Haywood chairman; Charles Edwards, Zac public hearing on the matter would be called.

Week, October 25 - November 3. Posters will be distributed to all wood county. The committees to which leaves the appointment of a One of the main features of the do this are as follows: Canton-Ira dog warden to the discretion of the apples in the First National Bank, H. L. Morgan, Waynesville-Helene announced that some sheep raisers put on by all the apple growers Coffey, Hugh Massie, Dick Barber, were unhappy about alleged killin the county. Arrangements are Bolling Hall, Will Boone, and C. lings of sheep by dogs, and he prom-D. Ketner. Hazelwood - Harper ised a hearing if the public desired one to determine whether or not a The apples will be placed in the Eavenson and Roy Arrington. These dog warden should be appointed. bank on Friday, October 26. All committees should come to the In summing up, Mr. Francis said orchardmen are urged to bring county agent's office on Thursday "The subject has been very quiet."

Truck Has Close of W. C. Russ, Harley Wright, and Escape Of Going In Pigeon River

A pick-up truck narrowly missed going into Pigeon river at Clyde just by a few feet late Tuesday afternoon. The truck hit a car, and then left the road and went over the river bank, it was reported by Patrolman Harold Dayton, investigating officer. William Lon Wright, of Lake Junaluska, driver of the truck, was found guilty of reckless driving by Judge N. C. West in Clyde The accident happened 50 feet inside the Clyde city limits, Neither Wright, nor the two boys with him were injuried. The truck was damaged about $300, the officer said. The car, driven by Paul R. Robnson, of Clyde, was damaged $417, the patrolman reported. No personal injuries were involved in the wreck.

> Highway Record For 1951

(To Date) Injured 49

In Haywood

Killed information com piled from Records of State Hihway Patrol.)

As members of the excellent concert band looked on, Sam Lane, second from left, president of the club, presented W. A. Bradley (right) chairman of the band committee, with a check for $300. The Boosters Club is one of the consistent backers of the band. On the left, M. H. Bowles, district superintendent, looks joyfully on at the presentation, while Charles Isley, director, second from the right, is also in a happy mood, as evidenced by his smile. As the check was presented the band played "He's A Jolly Good Fellow". The presentation was made in the Band Building (Staff Photo)