Mrs. Kirkpatrick Presents Program At UDC Meeting

The December meeting of the Haywood Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Noble Garratt, Sr., with Mrs. R. H. Blackwell and Mrs. Lee Bramlett as associate hostesses.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick presented a Christmas program by a group of young people. Linda Sloan read the Christmas story and carols were sung by Marietta Campbell, Betty Owen, Sara Josephine Thomas, Carey Howell and Beth Jacob and Robin Scroggs of Canton. Mary White gave a reading, "Long, Long Ago."

During the business hour, with Mrs. Roy Campbell presiding, the chapter voted to send $5.00 to the Red Cross for flowers to be sent to veterans at Oteen Hospital at Christmas time.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, delegate to the general convention of the U.D.C. held last month in Asheville, gave a report of the meeting and discussed future projects, chief of which will be the erection of a headquarters building in Richmond, Va. Mrs. R. N. Barber, Sr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., also reported on the Asheville convention.

A note was read from the Confederate Woman's Home in Fayetteville thanking the chapter for apples sent at Thanksgiving.

Members were urged to support the school expansion program for the county and to help put over the bond election this month.

A Christmas party followed the meeting and gifts were exchanged. The home was decorated with poinsettias, holly, and red candles and refreshments carried out the Christmas motif.

Guests were Mrs. James Thomas, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Mrs. Thad Howell, and Mrs. William Garrison and Mrs. Robbie Scroggs of Canton.

Center Pigeon Club Observes Husband's Night

One hundred percent attendance of all club members was the goal which Center Pigeon Home Demonstration Club members achieved at their Annual Husband's Night held at the Bethel School Cafeteria on Thursday night. All club members and all husbands were present with the exception of five husbands. Children were guests at the children's table.

The banquet marked the close of a successful club year, under the leadership of Mrs. M. V. Bramlett. Other officers are Mrs. Oliver Hill, vice president, Mrs. Gay Chambers, second vice president, Mrs. Haynes Henson, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. G. Chason, publicity chairman, Mrs. Jim Queen, historian.

The banquet table was decorated with a Christmas motif by Mrs. R. B. Mease, chairman of the decorations committee, Mrs. John Shipman, Mrs. H. F. Pressley, Mrs. Lee Dunlap, Mrs. Woodrow Fleming, Mrs. Crawford Mease, Mrs. Haynes Henson and Mrs. Way Mease. The foods committee was composed of Mrs. Cecil Murray, chairman, Mrs. Ray Haynes, Mrs. O. T. Henderson, Mrs. Wallace Jones, Mrs. B. N. Pierce, and Mrs. Owen Murray.

Mrs. Bramlett was toast mistress and the invocation was given by Mr. Bramlett. Following the meal, recreation was under the direction of Mrs. Gay Chambers, Mrs. H. L. Foster, Mrs. Jim Queen and Mrs. Walter Jones. Mrs. Frank Mease led the group in Christmas carols, after which Mrs. H. L. Foster gave a Christmas devotional. One of the amusing features of the recreational program was the presentation of a cake to the "ugliest husband in Henson Cove"—M. V. Bramlett. Relays and games, under the direction of Mrs. Chambers, brought much laughter and enjoyment to men, women and children, after which Santa's gifts were distributed.

The House Committee was composed of Mrs. Bramlett, Mrs. L. N. Cogburn, Mrs. Carl Green, Mrs. Oliver Hill, Mrs. Frank Mease, Mrs. Woodrow Stepieton and Mrs. Marida J. Wilson.

Handy Location

WOOSTER, O. (AP)—Mrs. Robert Ebert lives opposite the Wooster College golf course, a handy location for her hobby.

She collects lost golf balls, now has 1,449 of them. She found most of them in the off-course rough. One day she found 14.

She says she plays a little golf herself but always keeps her eye on the ball. Chances are if she lost one she'd find it herself.

Canada is an independent and sovereign member of the British Commonwealth of Nations. Like the U. S. it is a federation with provincial governments similar on the whole to the state governments in the United States.
