WSCS Of Plains Methodist Gets New Members

MRS. LLOYD R. JONES
Mountaineer Reporter

The WSCS of the Plains Methodist Church had a Christmas party at the church Friday night. Mrs. J. B. Golden, Mrs. Joyce Owen, and Mrs. Wilson Tranham were the hostesses.

The church dining room was decorated with evergreens and candles. During the meeting five people were added to the membership roll which brings the total to 35. Gifts were exchanged and names of secret pals for the coming year were drawn. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be the 3rd of Jan.

Anyone wishing to obtain the Blue Cross, Blue Shield insurance may easily do so by contacting Mrs. Lloyd Jones, address Route 1, Canton, N. C. Phone 3043.

Charlie Jones cut his big toe nearly off the other day, and has to be confined to his home for three months.

Mrs. Mark Swann is also on the sick list. The community wishes her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Robert Cathey and daughter are also sick at her mother's home. Mr. Cathey is in service.

The Christmas play of Plains Methodist Church will be given Friday night at 7:00 o'clock, December 21, at the church. Everyone interested in the church, is asked to bring a special "love" offering and place it on the altar.

South Clyde CDP Enjoys Regular Monthly Meeting

MRS. MAUDE OSBORNE
Mountaineer Reporter

South Clyde C.D.P. held its regular meeting at Louisa Chapel Monday night. A large crowd was present. Assistant Chairman Kyle Lindsey presided over the meeting in the absence of Chairman William Osborne, who was attending the Farm Bureau convention in Chicago. Mrs. Curtis Rogers had charge of the devotional, as well as the Christmas program which consisted of the following:

"Silent Night," by the congregation; Prayer by Miss Katherine Robinson; "O Come All Ye Faithful," by a group of girls; "What Does Christmas Mean?" by Patricia Lindsey; "A Stable Scene," by Diana Haynes; Kyle Lindsey — "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," "My Kitten" by Patty Haynes; a song by South Clyde Quartet; a song—"A Star of Christmas" by Patricia Lindsey and Diana Haynes; a recitation by Carol Lindsey; a piano duet by Mary Lee Justice and Mrs. Bill McDonald; and a song by the South Clyde Quartet.

During the business Miss Olivia Patton explained the shift to the new Blue Cross, Blue Shield insurance plan for communities which is to replace the present Group Insurance plan after Jan. 9th. Mrs. Maude Osborne is the collector for South Clyde.

The 4-H Club of the Clyde High School met Thursday. Geraldine Miller called the club to order and Betty Sorrels read the minutes.

A Christmas program was given by Rose Mary Newman, Peggy Stamey, Betty Sue Sorrels, Alberta Robinson and Shelly Sorrels. Mary Etta Brown led the group in singing "Upon The House Top" and "Jingle Bells."

Grover Dobbins talked on "Health records and recreation." Geraldine Miller appointed Ernestine Osborne health officer and Sue Carolyn Creasman recreational leader. The club adjourned by saying the motto.

The Pearl Gullford G.A.'s of Clyde Baptist Church held their regular meeting Wednesday night at the church. Six were present. On the program were Lou Anne Osborne, Janet Francis, Sue Stamey, Ann Carter, Joretta Medford and Barbara Scott.

Mrs. Paul Francis, the leader, explained the meaning of Christmas. Offering prayer was Mrs. Paul Francis. Sue Stamey served refreshments.

Colonial Colors

In early Colonial houses, white paint was the only color used for woodwork, except for the real mahogany which was used in handrails and, occasionally, for stair balusters. The wide board floors were often painted red or squash color.

There will be special envelopes.

Howard McIntyre has returned to his home after working in Virginia for the past three months.
