Holiday Party For The Very Young

CANDY BALLS... Attach place cards for small fry.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Thinking of entertaining young tots during the holidays? Then remember a few hints that help when the nursery set goes gala.

1. Keep the party small. Many mothers have found that having as many guests as a child is old is a safe number to have around.
2. Plan activities carefully. Don't wait for last-minute inspirations—you may not have enough of them to keep bouncing youngsters happy and occupied. Small fry enjoy simple singing games such as "London Bridge," "Drop the Handkerchief," and "In and Out the Window." You'd think they would tire of them but they don't. Treasure Hunts are popular, and you can have wrapped Christmas candy and peanuts for the hidden nuggets.

3. Plan to have a small present that each child will enjoy playing with at the party and then can take home. Inexpensive scrap books and new crayons are a good example of this kind of favor.

4. Keep party fare simple. Asking the children for lunch or supper is a good idea. For the main dish you might serve chicken timbales made from ground chicken, cream sauce, soft bread crumbs, and a little minced parsley for seasoning; with buttered snap beans cut in 1½-inch pieces for easy eating, and a small bread and butter sandwich. A few crisp carrot sticks will add pretty color to the plates. For dessert serve ice cream in little paper cups with tiny sugar cookies.

5. Youngsters love place cards on the party table. One suggestion is to make Chocolate Candy Balls and wrap each in cellophane; then attach a name tag to each guest. Here's a recipe for CHOCOLATE CANDY BALLS.

Ingredients: 4 cups sugar, ½ cup chopped nuts, 1 cup corn syrup, 1½ cups water, 1½ teaspoon salt, 12 ounces unsweetened chocolate, 1½ teaspoon vanilla, 1½ butter.

Method: Heat pulled low pan in moderate (350°) for 10 minutes. Put in greased bowl. Add nuts, mix well. Combine sugar, water, and salt; bring to a boil. Add chocolate and vanilla and stir until a few drops in form a soft ball. 234° over puffed rice and milk. With greased hands shape 2½ inches in diameter. Roll on wire rack. Makes 9.

Silent Night

Christmas, to be kept fittingly, must bring to us a remembrance of Christ. Every true vision of the day must show us the Holy Child, with the light of divine love shining on His face — for Christmas with no thought of the love of Christ, is empty of all sacred meaning. In the spirit of this glorious Season we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
