Waynesville Entrants In Soap Box Derby

In the Class "A" official Soap Box Derby held in Asheville Saturday, Waynesville boys took six of the first seven heats. In the semi-finals, in which four boys are entered, three of them were from Waynesville. And in the final race, Tyker Miller came within inches of winning the race. Shown, left to right, are Sammy Lane, who was sponsored by Liner Motor Sales; Stuart Roberson, sponsored by Scruggs' Texaco Service; Teddy Rogers, sponsored by Haywood Builders Supply; Eugene Wright, sponsored by Waynesville Pure Oil: Gary Evans, sponsored by Jim's Drive In; and Tyker Miller, sponsored by Allison and Duncan. Two boys were not present when picture was taken. They are: Bill Prevost, s, onsored by Waynesville Tractor Company, and Bill Hudson, sponsored by Belk-Hudson Department Store. The whole group was sponsored by Waynesville Jaycees and Watkins Chevrolet. Local chairman of the Soap Box Derby was Rufus A. Pannell. (Photo by Ingram's Studio)

Runner-Up In Asheville Scop Box Derby

Tyker Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, shown here in his racer, came within inches of win ning the 7th annual Soap Box Derby races in Asheville Saturday. Tyker, who was sponsored by Allison and Duncan, won the Collins Memorial Race, a one-heat race which was in memorial to Charles Eugene Collins, a 15-year-old in other Derbys who died July 3. Larry Ball of Asheville raced Collins' car. Tyker won the preliminary races in Waynesville, and came close to winning the coveted trip to Akron, Ohio, for the winners of all the races in the country. He was nosed out by inches (Photo by Ingram's Studio)
