Fines Creek Proud Of New Telephones

To show their appreciation for the installation of 69 telephones recently at Fines Creek, civic leaders of the community invited Southern Bell Telephone Company officials to a country dinner Wednesday night. Looking at one of the new instruments are, from left, R. A. Pinner of Asheville, district plant manager for the company; Mrs. Fay Toy, service representative of Waynesville; J. Lovell Smith, district manager from Asheville; Tom Brummitt, who was CDP chairman at Fines Creek last year when the work started; C. B. McCreary, and T. W. Rogers, who were among those respensible for getting the telephone service into the community. (Mountaineer Photo).

Schools To Open On

Students, put a ring circle around Wednesday, September 3rd. That is the day school opens for the 1952-53 term.

The announcement was made today, following a meeting of the county board of education Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Lucy Jones, county superintendent of education, said that three reasons prompted the opening of the Haywood schools about a week later than usually:

First: work on four rural buildings will be further along on the 3rd; Labor Day is September first, and the wine and beer election on the second, and many school buildings are used as polling places.

In view of these things, Mrs. Jones said that a decision was reached to begin the term on September 3rd.
