The Beginning of the Kingdom

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—1 Samuel 9-13.

Saul, son of Kish, a goodly young man, was sent with a servant to look for his father's asses. They could not find them and Saul would have gone home but the servant suggested that they consult Samuel.

When Samuel saw Saul he knew that he was the man Jehovah had chosen to be king over Israel. He told the two the asses had been found; they would eat with him and on the morrow he would take them on their way.

Next day the three set out, and after awhile Samuel told Saul to send his servant ahead. Then he took a vial of oil, poured it over Saul's head, kissed him and said Jehovah had chosen him to be Israel's king.

Calling the whole people together, Samuel presented the tall, handsome Saul to them as the king chosen by Jehovah, and all the people shouted, "God save the king." MEMORY VERSE—1 Samuel 12:22.
