

Letters To Editor

(Continued from Page 4, Sec. 2) along to water down the resolution, so the South could stay in, and they also watered down the FEPC plank in the platform to where they felt the South would accept it, and to such an extent that it does not mean a thing as it now stands. Even Walter White, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, says that it is unsatisfactory to his group.

The only solution I can see for restoring the South to its proper place in the Party is for the Southern States to vote for Mr. Eisenhower as their candidate, and thus wrest control of our Democratic Party as well as our Nation from the hands of these unscrupulous minority groups.

Yours very truly, HOOPER ALEXANDER, JR

Beaverdam Has Bible School

By MRS. GEORGE F. WORLEY Community Correspondent The Beaverdam Baptist and Methodist churches are uniting in a Bible School at the Methodist Church. The daily classes are reporting large attendances.

The North Canton Baptist Church will welcome the new pastor, the Rev. William N. Reece, for his first sermon Sunday morning. General officers who have been elected for the coming year will start their duties Sunday. They are Bill Clark, superintendent; Howard Thompson and Mrs. Jack Chapman, choir leaders; Mrs. Nellie Moore, general treasurer; Eula Mae Keener, clerk; Troy Davis, building fund chairman; Alma Hamlett, librarian; Ruth Ellen Clark, publicity; Mrs. Troy Davis, Young People's director; Melvin Henline, BTU director; church deacons will be ushers; and Mr. Stiles, the janitor.

Baptist Church will meet Thursday night at the home of Mrs. M. Haney. Mrs. Haywood Mackey will be in charge of the program.

The Methodist W.S.C.S. will meet with Mrs. Mae Robinson Friday night. A good attendance from the M.Y.F. of the Methodist Church was reported at the sub-district meeting Monday night at Bethel and the group won the banner. They are having the best league at this church they have had in several years, and all the young people in the community are invited to attend the meetings.

The community had its regular CDP meeting Tuesday night at the school with T. C. Allen presiding. A committee was appointed to prepare the community float for the Labor Day parade. Beaverdam will be host to Allens Creek Aug. 16 at a tour and picnic. Everyone who is planning to attend is asked to bring a basket of food. Appointed to the serving committee for the September meeting are Mrs. Troy Davis, Mrs. William

Stiles, Mrs. Elmer Kuykendall, Mrs. Jess Ivester, Mrs. Lloyd Reno, and Mrs. Jene Warren.

Watermelons were served on the school lawn and the meeting was dismissed by Dan Stockton. Mrs. R. V. Holland, Jr. left Saturday to visit her mother in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Allen have received news of the serious illness of the granddaughter, Eddie Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mull, in a Dayton, Ohio, hospital. Mrs. Kenneth Rhymer is ill at St. Joseph Hospital in Asheville. Others on the sick list are Mrs. O. M. Scroggs, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaddy, and Mrs. John Chapman. Beaverdam residents are extremely happy to receive telephone news to Mrs. Worley is asked to call 3134. Use Want Ads for quick result
