Miss Robinson Is Bride Of Marshall Caldwell

Miss Ellen Louise Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Robinson of Hazelwood, became the bride of Marshall Caldwell in a double ring ceremony Sunday, August 3, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fullbright.

Mr. Caldwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Caldwell also of Hazelwood.

The Rev. Jarvis Brock, pastor of the Barberville Baptist Church, pronounced the vows before an arch decorated with lilies and greenery. Only members of the two families and close friends attended.

The couple entered together and were unattended. The bride wore a blue tailored suit with white accessories and a corsage of lavender orchids.

Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, wore a two-toned tan suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the groom wore a navy dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony after which the couple left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home on Brown Avenue, Hazelwood.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville High School and is now employed in the bookkeeping department of the Carolina 5 and 10 Store. Mr. Caldwell, also a graduate of the Waynesville High School, is employed at Dayton Rubber Manufacturing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonner McClure and small son of Richmond, Virginia arrived Monday for a visit to relatives.

to be held tomorrow. She will receive an Associate in Arts degree. Miss Hyatt is a member of the Non Partel Literary Society and was Homecoming Queen in 1951 and a member of the May Court in 1952.

Before entering Mars Hill College she was graduated from the Waynesville Township High School and attended Virginia Intermont College in Bristol, Va.

Miss Massie Is Feted At Party In Albemarle

Miss Mary Ann Massie, bride-elect of Charles Way, who is attending summer school at Duke University, was honored at a bridge dinner given by her roommate, Miss Mary Elder, at her home in Albemarle, last Saturday evening.

The home was decorated with arrangements of roses and zinnias in which pink predominated and the honor guest was presented a corsage of pink lilies.

Three tables were assembled for bridge after which dinner was served. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. R. A. Elder.

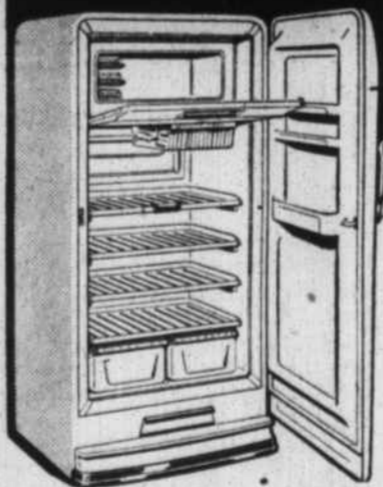

Miss Massie was presented a gift of silver.

The guests included Miss Massie, Miss Judy Hull of Charlotte, Miss Jane Gullledge, Miss Argene Fitzgerald, Miss Page Huckabee, Miss Lib Miller, Miss Jane Little, Miss Sally Beaver, Miss Jeanine Boyworth, Miss Ann Powell, Miss Sally Senter, and Miss Peggy Earp, all of Albemarle.

Miss Massie, Miss Hull, and Charles Way were week end guests of Miss Elder at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Elder, on Charlotte Road.
