

STANDARD PUBLISHING CO.
Comp—220-230 S First St
LOUISVILLE KY

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

TODAY'S SMILE
"Johnny, I hate to tell you, but last night at the party your sister promised to become my wife. Can you forgive me for taking her away?"
"Shucks, that's what the party was for."

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park
67th YEAR NO. 71 16 PAGES Associated Press WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 4, 1952 $3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

Corpening Resigns; Franklin New Agent

Deeds Land For Polling Place

Amos Arrington, (seated left) of Panther Creek, is shown signing a deed for a tract of property which he is giving the county for erecting a polling place for voters of Fines Creek precinct No. 2. The county plans to build a $500 structure on the property at an early date. Across the desk from Mr. Arrington is Glenn W. Brown, chairman of the county board of elections, and looking on, (standing) is Marvin Arrington, a registrar of the precinct. (Mountaineer Photo).

Changes Will Be Made September 20

BULLETIN
Wayne Franklin, assistant county agent, was named as county agent of Haywood this afternoon, succeeding Wayne Corpening, who resigned yesterday to become district supervisor.

Mr. Franklin will assume the position about September 20th, when Mr. Corpening leaves. The announcement of Mr. Franklin's appointment came from C. C. Francis, chairman of the board of Commissioners, and R. W. Shoffner, assistant director of the Extension Service.

Wayne Corpening, after 16 years of outstanding service as assistant county agent and county agent of Haywood, tendered his resignation this week to accept a position as head of the western farm district comprised of 17 counties.

In accepting the resignation, C. C. Francis, as chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, said that the Board did so with a great deal of reluctance but felt that the new position is a well-deserved advance for the popular agent.

Corpening will report to his new position about September 20. His headquarters will temporarily be located in Waynesville but it will be necessary for him to move later to Raleigh.

Under Corpening's leadership, (See County Agent—Page 8)

Resigns

Wayne Corpening has resigned as county agent, after 16 years in Haywood County.

New Agent

Wayne Franklin was named this afternoon as county agent for Haywood County.

Stacy Leatherwood Gets Tulane Degree

Stacy Wilburn Leatherwood of Waynesville received the master of social work degree from Tulane University at summer commencement here today.

Beer-Wine Dealers Have 60 Days To Clear Out Stocks

Sales Will End On November 3

Places of business in Haywood County that sell beer and wine will have until midnight, Monday, November 3, to dispose of their stocks of these beverages.

Following the election Tuesday in which the county favored by a wide margin the end of beer and wine sales, Chairman of the Board of Elections, Glenn W. Brown, said that the law permits their sale for 60 days after the day the voters go to the polls. Actually, the 60 days will be up Nov. 2, but because the final day comes on Sunday, the period is extended 24 hours.

The official count, as tabulated by the Board in session here this morning, follows:

For wine	1819
Against wine	6679
For beer	1917
Against beer	6542

For the first time since the legal sale of wine and beer was voted in 19 years ago, Haywood County decided it was going dry Tuesday in an election that saw the winthers ahead by a nearly four to one margin.

Four precincts voted in favor of continuing the sale of wine and beer while the rest of the country went overwhelmingly against the alcoholic beverages. The four were Big Creek with a total of 48 voters for wine and beer and 17 against; Cataloochee, 12 votes for and two against; Center Waynesville, 473 for and 457 against; and South Waynesville 501 for beer and wine and 449 against their sale. In Waynesville itself, (4 pre- (See Beer-Wine—Page 8)

Lemonade For The Voters

While the voters in the South Waynesville precinct were doing their duty at the polls Tuesday at Central Elementary School, Tim Rothermel was across the street with his lemonade stand in an effort to capitalize on the situation. Tom pours Bob Watson of Chapel Hill a cool glass while Tim's dog, Romeo, acts as a sort of self-appointed guard at the front of the booth. (Mountaineer Photo).

Football Stadium To Get Additional Thousand Seats

Construction of permanent seats for an additional 1,000 football fans will be completed in time for Waynesville's second home game of the season September 26. M. H. Bowles, superintendent of the Waynesville School District, said today.

The addition of the new seats came as a result of hundreds of requests that reserved seating space be made available for the games. Until now there has been no reserved seats available for any of the games and the seats were sold on a first-come, first-served basis. During the past few years the Mountaineers have played to capacity crowds and in most instances overflow crowds in their home games.

Mr. Bowles said the stadium would provide seats now for between 2,500 and 3,000 easily. The wooden bleacher seats, which have been in use for some years, will again be used this year. The bleachers have a seating capacity of 500.

The cost of the project has been set at $4,300. It is being financed by the Athletic Association as a part of its efforts to continue the enthusiasm that Waynesville's sports fans have had during the past.

All seats in the new stadium will be sold on a reserved basis. The seats will be made of two-by-six boards bolted together. The whole structure, which will be made of cement blocks, will measure 150 feet long and will be 10 tiers high. It is to be located at the lower end of the field, across from the Press Box.

Ben Sloan is contractor.

Wellco Pays Honor To Long-Time Employees

Wellco Shoe Corporation honored its five, nine, and ten year employees with a luncheon in the company restaurant Monday.

Five year employees received a silver service pin, and nine year employees, both men and women, received a wrist watch. Those who have completed 10 years of service received a gold service pin and a stock certificate for $100 of Wellco Shoe Corporation stock.

There are now 28 employees of the company who have become stockholders upon completion of 10 years of service.

Cherokee Drama Seen By 141,000 During Summer

"Unto These Hills" continued to be North Carolina's top drawing card among the three outdoor dramas this year with a total attendance of 141,500 for 58 performances.

More than 215,000 people saw the three outdoor dramas—"Unto These Hills" in Cherokee, "Thunderland" in Asheville, and "Horn in the West" in Boone.

The total attendance at the Mountaineer Theater in Cherokee, the home of "Unto These Hills," was 10,000 less than last year's. The average nightly attendance was greater than last year, however, since fewer performances were given. The average for each performance was 2,439.

"Thunderland" showed to a total of 27,434. The drama played 48 times between the premiere on July 3 and the final performance Labor Day. Average attendance was 571.

On Library Board

Mrs. D. L. Rigby of Clearwater, Fla., and her son, Eugene Medford of Arlington, Va. were weekend guests of Mrs. Rigby's mother, Mrs. H. C. Ferguson.

Decorations of Redmond Cemetery Set Saturday

Annual decoration of the Redmond Cemetery on Fines Creek will be held Saturday, September 6, with Rev. T. C. Hicks preaching the Memorial Service at 11 o'clock.

After the service lunch will be served on the grounds, followed by the decoration of the graves in the afternoon.

Methodist Will Homecoming

Methodist Church in Waynesville will observe its third annual Homecoming Day Sunday, September 7, with Rev. John W. Moore as guest preacher.

Lake Junaluska will homecoming service. Activities will begin at 8 o'clock with Sunday School union of A. R. Leatherwood. Services will be held at 11 o'clock worship. Moore will speak twice, at 1 and 8 o'clock in the afternoon.

Services will be held at 11 o'clock. For all the programs directed by Miss Janice Moore and the Rev. Clyde L. Moore.

School Contracts Will Be Opened September 24th

Bids on the Waynesville cafeteria and classroom building in the county will be opened Sept. 24 instead of Sept. 10, according to an announcement from Mrs. Lucy Jones, superintendent of Haywood schools.

Mrs. Jones said the postponement was made to give contractors additional time to complete their bids.

Liquor Captured Thursday Morning

Second liquor catch within a few days was made at 3:20 a. m. Thursday when Patrolman H. Dayton and Deputy Sheriff Hub Tate captured a 1930 Ford containing 18 gallons of non-tax paid whiskey.

According to Dayton, the two men who were riding in the Ford jumped out and escaped when they saw the patrol car. The capture was made on the Max Patch Road near Salvation Army headquarters. Dayton said the Ford was heading towards Waynesville at the time of the capture.

Outstanding Work Wins Certificate For The Local Employment Office

Miss DeBryda Fisher, manager of the local Employment Security Commission office, was presented a certificate of commendation Aug. 27 for the outstanding work the staff did during July in the placement of disabled veterans in employment.

The award was made by Beach Keller, employment chairman of the N. C. Department of Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Veterans Employment Representative of the Asheville office of the State Employment Security Commission.

Two types of awards are presented each month by the VFW. Class A certificates are awarded to the offices in each of the four groups of State Employment Security offices making the highest ratio of veteran placements to total male placements. Class AA certificates go to the office in each group with the highest ratio of total handicapped veteran placements to total handicapped male placements.

In June, the local office won both awards in its group. It won the Class AA award in July. One hundred per cent of the handicapped veterans were placed.

(See Certificate—Page 8)

How Haywood County Voted

Precinct	For Wine	Against Wine	For Beer	Against Beer
Allens Creek	116	370	121	365
Beaverdam No. 1	44	358	52	348
Beaverdam No. 2	63	309	68	298
Beaverdam No. 3	54	324	67	315
Beaverdam No. 4	93	323	112	312
Beaverdam No. 5	57	245	59	228
Beaverdam No. 6	94	352	105	344
Big Creek	21	9	27	8
Cataloochee	6	1	6	1
Cecil	13	111	13	105
Center Pigeon	13	215	13	213
Clyde	56	541	59	534
Crabtree	33	231	35	232
East Fork	10	232	6	233
Fines Creek No. 1	47	185	42	182
Fines Creek No. 2	1	37	1	37
Hazelwood	109	297	117	290
Iron Duff	26	124	26	124
Ivy Hill	133	359	131	363
Jonathan Creek	66	187	71	177
Lake Junaluska	45	229	48	225
Pigeon	35	485	40	478
Saunook	26	131	26	133
Center Waynesville	231	235	242	232
East Waynesville	68	257	68	249
South Waynesville	248	226	253	223
West Waynesville	92	269	92	256
White Oak	19	87	19	87
Totals	1819	6679	1917	6542

Champion Float Carries Employees

Champion Paper and Fibre Company entered several floats in the Labor Day parade and all of them carried plant employees. The floats themselves were among the most colorfully decorated of any in the parade. (Mountaineer Photo).

Two Cars Hit At Cove Creek

Slight damage but no injuries resulted from a two-car collision about 5:30 p. m. Monday at Cove Creek when the automobiles met on a short curve.

Hopewell R. Chiselbrook of Savannah, Ga. was on the inside of the curve when he struck a car driven by John C. Hopkins of Mt. Sterling. Patrolman Joe Murrill, investigated, said that damage to the Hopkins car amounted to about $100 and the Chiselbrook automobile about $50.

No charges were preferred by the patrolman.

Highway Record For 1952 In Haywood (To Date)
Injured . . . 38
Killed . . . 5
(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol.)

Sunny and not so warm Friday.

Waynesville temperature by the State Test

Max. Min. Rainfall

83 57

80 61 .27

72 46