Harrell Speaks At Schoolmasters Meeting Tuesday

Members of the Haywood County Schoolmasters Club were told Tuesday night that teachers have a great responsibility in keeping children interested in school.

The speaker was W. B. Harrell, director of public relations at Western Carolina Teachers College. The club met at Spaldon's Restaurant with 28 present.

Mr. Harrell said that effective methods of accomplishing this are to create a desirable atmosphere and situations where children are not competing against one another. Teachers should try to develop their best abilities in individual pupils, he said.

Mr. Harrell was introduced by vice-president Bruce Jaynes. Various district principals introduced their new teachers to the club.

President Bill Swift was in charge. He announced the next meeting will be Dec. 8 at Spaldon's Restaurant.

KEEPS PLEDGE TO WALK AT WEDDING

IT'S A DOUBLY HAPPY MOMENT for Mrs. Shirley Benford when, after her marriage in St. Joseph, Mich., to Neil Benford, she shows some of the nuptial gifts to Adele Poindexter, 3. Before her marriage, the bride was Shirley Ludwig, a physical therapist. Adele, a polio victim, was her patient. Adele was told she could be flower girl at the wedding if she could manage to walk down the aisle. Her leg heavily braced, the child bravely met the challenge. (International Soundphoto)

WNC Historical Assn. Will Meet Saturday At WCTC

The Western North Carolina Historical Association will meet Saturday afternoon, Oct. 25, at Western Carolina Teachers College.

Dean W. E. Bird of WCTC, president of the Association, has announced that the meeting, scheduled to begin at 2:30, will be highlighted by a program, "A Historical Sketch of the Arts and Crafts of the Cherokee," by Dr. R. L. Leftwich of WCTC.

Other meeting plans include discussion of future plans and reports on the association's work in recent months.

At 1:30 p.m. those members who care to may participate in a guided tour of the new Stillwell Classroom Building and Hunter Library on the campus.

Delegates arriving before noon Friday may secure luncheon at the college cafeteria. The meeting is scheduled to adjourn around 4 p.m.

With a membership of more than 100, the Association has as officers: Dean Bird; Dr. D. J. Whitener of Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, vice-president; and Albert S. McLean of Asheville, secretary.

The last meeting of the WNCCHA was held in August at Boone in connection with the meeting of the State Historical Association.
