 regular hours Wednesday, and will be closed Thursday and Friday.
 For employees of the five major industries in the Waynesville-Hazelwood area, the following schedules have been announced:
 Dayton Rubber Company — Employees will be off Thursday.
 Welco Shoe Company — Employees will enjoy Christmas Day and Friday off.
 Unagusta Manufacturing Company — A three day vacation, beginning Wednesday afternoon has been scheduled. Employees will be off after the annual Christmas party Wednesday afternoon until Monday morning.
 Royle and Pilkington Company — Will be closed Wednesday afternoon until Monday morning.
 A. C. Lawrence Leather Company — Will be closed Thursday.

Town offices in Waynesville and Hazelwood will be closed Thursday and Friday. This applies only to the offices, and some employees will be at work in necessary departments throughout the Christmas holidays.
 Offices in the Haywood County Court House will be closed from Wednesday at noon until Saturday morning. The Sheriff's Department will observe regular hours.
 The Waynesville Chamber of Commerce will close Thursday and Friday.
 The First National Bank of Waynesville and the First State Bank of Hazelwood will be closed Thursday and Friday and also January 1.
 The Haywood County Library will be closed for the entire week.
 The Mountaineer will be published just once this week. As is traditional, the employees will enjoy a rather long holiday, having Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday off. The office will be open next Monday morning, and a paper will be published next Monday. Elsewhere in the area, other businesses have announced holidays for the employees, with almost every firm allowing its employees at least a two-day vacation.

 Hundreds of Christmas programs have been scheduled by churches and church groups for the remainder of the week. All churches will have services on Christmas Day, and many will have services Wednesday night.
 Many firms have scheduled Christmas parties for the employees, with Dayton Rubber the first to get its employees together at Christmas. The party was held at the Waynesville High School auditorium Saturday night with an unusually large crowd in attendance.
 Trinity College defeated City College of New York 94-0 back in 1907. But from 1877 to 1887 the Bantams didn't win one football game.

 and about the only time most of us saw one was at Christmas. My aunt and uncle, who had only recently been married, came to spend Christmas Day with us. To this day I can still see a picture of those lace curtains, the big orange and the wagon against the background of sunlight on the snow, truly an old-fashioned Christmas, and a beautiful one."
Commandery Will Have Christmas Party 25th
 Waynesville Commandery No. 31, Knights Templar, will have a Christmas observance at 12 o'clock noon Christmas Day. Sir Knight F. E. Worthington, Past Commander, will be in charge and he asks that all Sir Knights be present in uniform. All Master Masons, Capitular Masons, Cryptic Masons, and their families are invited to attend.
