Rubinoff Given Much Applause For Concert Here

A highly enthusiastic audience turned out for what was called a "milestone in Western North Carolina musical programs" Thursday night when Rubinoff, internationally famed violinist, presented a concert of popular music at the Waynesville High School auditorium.

The program was sponsored by the Waynesville Kiwanis Club and the Waynesville Key Club, both of which merit a great deal of appreciation from music lovers in this area for bringing the popular violinist here.

Rubinoff drew tremendous rounds of applause after each number and his accompanist, Clifford Souze, also came in for his share of the audience's response for his wonderful renditions on the piano.

Highlights of the evening concert were arrangements of "Rhapsody in Blue," "Polonaise" and "Warsaw Concerto." Rubinoff also delighted the audience with an international rendition of "Don't Fence Me In," a number which he played in nine different variations, ranging from a Scottish rendition to one in a clever boogie-woogie fashion.

Rubinoff paid a great compliment to Waynesville's school children, who turned out in large numbers to hear him Thursday afternoon. He visited six schools in the morning—East Waynesville, Canton, Bethel, Crabtree-Iron Duff, Waynesville, and Hazelwood—and drew wide rounds of applause at each school.
