B. and P. W. Club Members Model Original Hats

The Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club held a dinner meeting Tuesday night at The Maples.

The highlights of the program was an Easter Parade of Hats in which each member wore an original model fashioned of materials which are never commercially used by milliners.

Miss Alma Jackson was awarded first prize for her hat created with school supplies including test papers, report card, pencils, scissors, and a hickory switch. Miss Helen Coffee took second place with a model fashioned of copper screen decorated with spring flowers.

Miss Mary Medford won applause with her creation, the crown of which contained a chirping Easter chick.

The program was presented by the Radio and News Service Committee composed of Miss Mary Cornwell, Mrs. P. H. Gentry, and Mrs. Kenneth Lowe. Mrs. George Craig gave the devotional.

Mrs. J. R. McCracken presided during the business hour and reports were given on the district meeting held Sunday at Montreat. The club voted to assist with the sale of Lilies for the Crippled Children's fund to be held here the Saturday before Easter and Mrs. Howard Bryson was appointed to serve as chairman for the event.

Named as a nominating committee were Miss Mary Medford, chairman, Mrs. Howard Bryson, and Mrs. M. G. Stamey.

Mrs. McCracken announced that Mrs. Lucy Rhodes Duncan, state B. and P. W. president, will visit the Waynesville club at its April meeting.
