Maggie Club To Assist In T.B. Clinic

The Maggie Home Demonstration Club was one of many Haywood County home demonstration clubs to vote unanimously this week to assist with the T.B. Chest X-Ray Clinic. Maggie Club volunteers will work in two-hour shifts during the entire two-day period, May 22 and 23.

Other business covered in the meeting Thursday at the home of its president, Mrs. Hubert Evans, included a report by Mrs. R. L. Clement, secretary, on the Craft Workshop held April 23 at the home of Mrs. Tom Grasty. Hand-stenciled bibs were made as souvenir gifts for the maternity ward of the Haywood County Hospital. This project was in observance of National Home Demonstration Week. Plans were also made to cooperate with the Hospital Open House May 12.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave the month's demonstration on food conservation. Mrs. Jim Plott, foods and nutrition leader, discussed the use of powdered milk solids for balancing a home diet. She demonstrated its delicious possibilities with candy made from the powdered milk.

The June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. L. Clement.

Fairview Club To Send Delegates To Camp Schaub

The Fairview Home Demonstration Club, which met Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Allen Hyatt, will send two delegates to the Handicraft Camp, to be held June 2, 3 and 4 at Camp Schaub. Mrs. R. J. Fowler and Mrs. Thad Chafin will attend, with Mrs. Lawrence Davis as alternate.

Mrs. Fowler presented plans for the year's craft activities to culminate in Achievement Day. These were unanimously accepted. Members also volunteered to assist with the X-Ray Tubercular Clinic to be held in the county. The home agent gave a demonstration on food conservation, after which a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. Alna Hyatt served as co-hostess and Mrs. Fred Plott, president, led the meeting. Mrs. Hyatt gave the devotional. The June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Kyle Campbell.

Figure Flattery

By VERA WINSTON

NAVY sheer crepe is used for a dress that would be an excellent choice for the more mature or less-than-slim figure. There is flattering bust detail in the draped encrusted bow which is accented with grosgrain ribbon. Ribbon marks the surplice closing that continues down to the hem in a diagonal line that is so slenderizing. Bracelet-length cuffed sleeves and slit pockets are other features. The belt is of grosgrain and the buttons are bone.
