Miss Helen Louise Ferguson Weds Lawrence T. Davis

Miss Helen Louise Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McKinley Ferguson of Waynesville, Route 2, became the bride of Lawrence Thomas Davis, son of Mrs. Vinson Davis of Waynesville and the late Mr. Davis, Saturday evening, May 30 in a candlelight ceremony in the Crabtree Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mrs. C. O. Newell, pastor, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with arrangements of fern and white gladioli and the vows were spoken before an arch entwined with ivy.

A program of music was presented by Miss Mattie Sue Medford, organist, and Lowery Ferguson, Jr., soloist. Mr. Ferguson sang, "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee," and "Because," prior to the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer," as a benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used as professional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a strapless, waltz length gown of white nylon net over slipper satin designed with lace bodice, and a matching lace fitted jacket fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. The full skirt had a panel of lace in front and she wore mits of rosepoint lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of rosepoint lace and seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with white orchids.

Miss Ruth Ferguson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a strapless, waltz length gown of lime nylon net over taffeta with a matching net stole and headdress. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Miss Joan Medford, bridesmaid, wore pink net over taffeta and also carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Barbara Ann Ferguson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of jonquil yellow taffeta with a veil of yellow nylon net attached to a band of flowers. She carried a basket of pink and white rose petals.

Jim Plemmons, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ernest Davis of Waynesville served as best man for his brother and ushers were Roy Davis, brother of the bridegroom, Harold Winchester of Waynesville, and John Robert Ferguson of Asheville and Charles A. Ferguson of Iron Duff, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Ferguson, mother of the bride, wore a turquoise nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy sheer with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The couple left for a wedding
