

Music Concert
Lake Junaluska
to Be Held Saturday

The first music concert of the Lake Junaluska Assembly will be presented at 8 p.m. Saturday in the school auditorium, featuring the Dilworth Methodist Church, Charlotte.

Other musical programs already scheduled include the annual In-Service of Music, July 28-August 2, presented by Prof. Cyrus Daniel of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, and a religious music program August 9 by the widely known Family of Charlotte.

Efficient Burglars

LAKE CITY, Calif. (AP)—Burglars broke into a small safe, knocked it over and abandoned the safe on a nearby road.

When it was found, Sheriff G. Carpenter fished out more than $5,000 in currency through a hole.

The currency and the safe were returned to the owner.

The United States has about 275,000 safes.

Saunook CDP Meets Friday At School

A meeting of the Saunook Community Development Program will be held Friday, June 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

A representative from the county agent's office will be on the program and a report of the progress of the community-sponsored Boy Scout Troop will be made by the leaders, Joel Arrington and James McClure.

Pies, cakes and other foods will be sold after the meeting to raise funds for the community treasury.

All women of the community are asked to bring a pie to be used for the food sale.

Everyone is invited.

God Has No Proxy
Dr. Carl Michalson
Tells Conference

"It is impossible to be a Christian in name only," nearly 300 college students and counselors from 12 states were told Wednesday at the opening of a Southwide Methodist student conference at Lake Junaluska.

The daily platform speaker is Dr. Carl Michalson, professor at Drew University, Madison, N. J. The conference will continue through Tuesday, sponsored by the Methodist Student Movement and the Methodist Board of Education.

"To obey God is a simple but adequate answer to the question of what it means to be a Christian," Dr. Michalson said. "We cannot afford to just assume that we are Christian . . . we must think and act as Christians if we are to influence others. A basic Protestant belief is that God has no proxy, and every real Christian can commune with God in prayer . . . he needs nobody else to interpret God's will for him."

Dr. Harvey Brown, Nashville,

The Rev. Adlai C. Holler, St. George, S. C., will be the guest preacher Sunday at the Methodist Assembly, speaking at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. in the Lake Junaluska auditorium.

The evening service will also feature the choir of Sylva Methodist Church, it was announced by Dr. H. G. Allen, assembly superintendent.

A graduate of Duke University and the University of South Carolina, the Rev. Mr. Holler has been a member of the South Carolina Methodist Conference since 1925. He has served pastorates throughout the state and is a former state chaplain of the American Legion. In 1950 he was a delegate to the constituting convention of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

A navy chaplain, Dr. Carroll H. Varner, will speak twice on Tuesday, at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. He was formerly pastor of the Magnolia Avenue Methodist Church, Knoxville, Tenn.

Three Local Boys
Enlist In
Naval Reserve

Three boys from Waynesville and vicinity recently enlisted in the U. S. Naval Reserve. Enlisting were: Buddy Mack Phillips of Waynesville, Forrest Eugene Conard of Clyde, and Verlin Lee Willis of Canton.

These young men are taking one day's training each week at the Naval Reserve Training Center in Asheville. Training is held each Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7:30 to 10 p.m., and a full day's pay is received for this period. Instruction is offered in several specialized fields including radio, gunnery, diesel engines, radar, clerical and many others.

A representative of the Asheville Naval Reserve Training Center will be at the Waynesville Post Office on Thursday, June 18th, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to interview veterans and young men without prior military service who are between the ages of 17 and 18½ years.

Tenn. conference director, said the student meeting at Lake Junaluska is one of 82 state and regional conferences scheduled this year for Methodist students. Attendance will total more than 14,000, he said, including a year-end national meeting in December at Lawrence, Kans.

The primary purpose of the conferences, Dr. Brown said, is to permit students and counselors to share their experiences, to plan campus programs for the next school year in the field of religious fellowship and education, and to work with student groups of other denominations.

Eight foreign students are delegates here, representing Egypt, Pakistan, Korea, India, Liberia, Malaya, Japan. They are studying in this country on scholarships.

The Rev. Hawley Lynn, Columbia, S. C., is conference dean, and the assistant dean is the Rev. R. Harold Hays of Canton.
