The Practice of Christian Liberty

Scripture—Galatians 5:6.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THERE ARE so many fine lessons to be learned in the two chapters which bring to a Paul's epistle to the Galatians. Doubtless many fine help-ings have been preached from them, and more will be.
Liberty is a word which is much talked about in the world today.
We desire liberty for ourselves, liberty for all humanity.
When we have it, do we use it for our good or the good of others? Liberty is a blessing. Children whose parents give them a great deal of liberty may use it for doing good and destructive acts, and often fall into the same traps as those who have no liberty at all.

Paul writes to the Galatians:
"Ye have been called unto liberty, but use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in this, that thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

MEMORY VERSE
"Ye brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be service one to another."—Galatians 5:13.

in one word, even this:
"I shall love thy neighbor as myself."
in the Spirit," Paul urges Galatians, "and ye shall not be in the lust of the flesh."
in childhood to old age war-rings are in constant war-within themselves—between the flesh and the Spirit. We urge to do what is right and to do what pleases
the Spirit.
There is a large number of
of the flesh"; which we avoid if we would inherit the Kingdom of God: Among them envy, witchcraft, hatred, jealousy, emulation, wrath, strife, contentions, and drunkenness, reveland such like. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, gentleness, goodness,
faith, meekness, temperance. Against such, there is no law."
There is no more appealing to the law if we can only live as Paul (and we would have us, would experience liberty and happiness.
It would be a successful life, if we were either just a common man or a world-famous one.

GOD'S MASTERPIECE?

The rose comes very close to man's standard of perfection. Its delicate beauty seems to mock every effort of the artist or camera to capture it.

But is the rose really God's masterpiece? Hardly!

For its beauty is passive. It brightens life only for those who seek it out and gaze upon it. And in but a few days it withers and is ugly.

God's masterpiece is MAN. For with all his waywardness and selfishness, Man is capable of reflecting the love of God. When he lets God touch his life he is able to bring happiness and faith to others. He doesn't have to wait until he is noticed. He can actively bring spiritual blessings to his fellow men.

As the gardener cultivates the rose, the Church cultivates the lives of men. Always it strives to help us become all that God wants us to be.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
