

Salvation Army Plans Mountain Top Singing Sunday

Max Patch Mission Host Gathering

Far and near, folks will be singing Sunday to the breeze-weights of Max Patch mountain-top by the 17th annual convention and mountain-top singing of the Salvation Army in Mission.

Mountain singers and entertainers will come to show their talents; friends will be there to entertain them; and many another in search of home-spun music will join the merry-making under some giant tree.

Afternoon session will feature address by Commissioner J. Dray of Atlanta, Territorial Commander of the 15 southern states.

After the annual dedication of the graves in the Army's cemetery will take place at 2 p.m.

Program starts at 10 in the morning and continues until 4 in the afternoon.

Special attraction promised for Sunday is "Pan Handle Pete," an extraordinary, of the Farmers Federation.

Cecil Brown, in charge of the mountain-top mission, estimates the entire day's gathering will attract some 3000 people from all over the mountain area.

Major Cecil Brown, who has served in the Army since 1917, returned to the Max Patch area, the old circling preachers who had served the area were gone; the little churches were tumbled-down. Major Brown, at that time a lieutenant, succeeded in re-establishing the circuit, re-opening the churches, until today the central Citadel has been joined by five more missions.

Small fry love toasted bread cubes in a cream soup, under a poached egg or as a base for creamed vegetables, meat or fish. To prepare the cubes, cut soft bread into small squares. Arrange the cubes on a cookie sheet and place in a slow oven; turn the bread occasionally and toast until golden brown on all sides.

Soothes Gassy Stomach Pain!

REV. DRAKE, well-known of Middlesboro, Kentucky.

tucky, writes: "My painful stomach troubles were relieved so completely by Scalf's Indian River Medicine that I am writing this letter of thanks to you. I just want to help those whose days just drag by because they suffer the awful gassy stomach agony that I did. I highly recommend Scalf's Indian River Medicine to all my friends.

Yes, be sure genuine Scalf's Indian River Medicine is what you get if you suffer as Rev. Drake did. Let it quickly ease away the terrible gassy stomach pains after meals. Let it help you regain your "Smile of Health".

FILM SCHEDULE JULY 27 - AUGUST 21
Pressure Groups—20 minutes—sound—b&w. Clearly explains what pressure groups are and reveals that, when democratically used, they are a necessary instrument for decision-making in democracy. Illustrates methods used by a representative democratic pressure group to bring about legislation for a desirable civic project.

Obligations—17 minutes—sound—b&w. Two families illustrate the correct and incorrect manner of taking care of their obligations to one another.
Loon's Necklace—11 minutes—sound—color. Brings to life a charming Indian legend of how the loon, a water bird, received his distinguished neckband. Authentic ceremonial masks, carved by Indians of British Columbia, establishes the characters of the story and clearly portrays the Indian's sensitivity to the moods of nature.

Rich color photography, delightful narration, and effective background music make this a thoroughly charming film.
Library Story—16 minutes—sound—color. Portrays ways in which a modern public library serves its community. Dwells on the varied interests of "regular" readers, children, teenagers, blind people, and those interested in music, showing how the library helps them all.
Stuff for Stuff—19 minutes—sound—b&w. The story of trade. Cave drawings, Egyptian hieroglyphics, animated maps, and live photography are used to illustrate the transition from primitive food gathering to the complexity and interdependence of present-day international exchange.

Crisis in Iran—18 minutes—sound—b&w. Shows modern cities and primitive nomadic tribesmen, the largest oil refinery in the world and the ruins of ancient Persian civilizations. Outlines the economic
