The Christian Home

LOVE AND KINDNESS MAKE A HOUSEHOLD CHRISTLIKE

Scripture—Ephesians 5:15-33; 6:1-9; Colossians 3:12-4:1.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL

"IT ever so humble, there's no place like home," the song most of us are able to say.

"Husbands love your wives, and be not bitter against them."—Col. 3:19.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is well pleasing in the Lord."

"Fathers, provoke not your children, that they be not discouraged."—Col. 3:20-21.

"Honor thy father and mother, that it may be well with thee."

"And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord."

"In Paul's day, servants were often slaves, but Paul's admonition to the master and to the servant, is also pertinent to labor problems between management and labor in our day. Masters are told to be considerate of their servants, and the servants are advised to work with good will, doing service as unto the Lord, and not unto men:

"Masters, render unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven."

What constitutes a happy Christian home? It is one in which parents love each other, where children are trained to obey their parents in an atmosphere of loving kindness, mutual understanding and respect.

Teachers, talk to the children about their own homes, showing them what is the part they must play in order to achieve a truly Christian home.

AS SHEEP WITHOUT A SHEPHERD?

This flock may seem to have no shepherd . . . But study the picture again!

Notice that the sheep are moving in a common direction? The several which have paused for a last nibble, and even the couple whose inquisitive heads have turned to gaze at our camera, are still on a path that someone has chosen.

Now look around you in the world. Do men seem as sheep without a shepherd—confused, lost, afraid?

But watch a little longer—you'll see millions moving forward in a common direction. They are sheep who have found The Shepherd. Though they belong to different churches, their common faith in Christ brings order out of chaos in their lives, and gives hope and destiny to their steps.

For you who are tired of wandering and wondering—the Church offers a Path . . . and a Fold.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH. The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive.
