

Quality Of Crabtree Beef Showing In Top Market Prices

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON
Community Reporter

The echo from the woods reminds one of long ago chestnut falling time. Only now it's squirrels that are falling. Time changes a lot of things.

The nip of frost we had last week put the leaves to changing color. It won't be long until our mountains will be ablaze with autumn glory. Let's not miss this majestic beauty by taking it for granted.

Our farmers are still shifting to market their prime beef stock and Crabtree is still holding her leading place in quality. Only last week calves from Crabtree brought top prices at the feeder calf sale in Asheville where Glenn C. and Joe Palmer sold 30 head.

World Communion service was observed at the Crabtree M. E. Church Sunday with the Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Newell administering their last service on the charge. Mt. Zion and Davis Chapel Churches were represented.

Several from our community attended the supper at Davis Chapel in Iron Duff Saturday night honoring the Newells who will be moving to their new work in the Marion District this week.

Our sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Brooks of Enka whose small sons Billie and Jerry are in the Orthopedic Hospital in Asheville. Mrs. Brooks is the former Lucille Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Davis of Hyder Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. James Safford of Anniston, Ala., are visiting Mr. Safford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Safford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirkpatrick have as their guests this week Mrs. Kirkpatrick's sisters, Mrs. Hugh Miller and Mrs. Annie M. Duncan of Asheville.

Those attending the Duke-Tennessee football game in Knoxville Saturday were Fred L. Safford and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Safford, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nesbitt.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Millard Ferguson during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Reeves of Hazelwood who were just back from their vacation in Dayton Beach, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ferguson of Jefferson who were en route home from a visit to their son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Ferguson of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferguson and son, John, and children of Whittier; and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell of Enka.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Palmer, Annie and Tommie, of Asheville, were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs.

Prodigal Steer

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP) — It took one white-nosed Hereford steer belonging to George Ward, several weeks to decide that the grass grows greener at home, after all.

After roaming away from the Ward pasture the steer was reported seen at various points east of this central Pennsylvania community. Then one morning he quietly walked inside a fenced lot, and through a bar gate purposely let down for him and rejoined Ward's 28-head herd.

Mrs. M. H. Ferguson attended the meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the home of Mrs. J. J. Ferguson in Waynesville Friday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Dock Russell of Panther's Creek, Lloyd Teague of Cove Creek, and Mrs. Frank Hannah of Clyde, Rt. 1, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Palmer.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dean Green and infant son of Tampa, Fla., are guests this week of Mrs. Green's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ferguson. They will go from here to Virginia to visit Mr. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Green, formerly of Pines Creek.

Also visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ferguson during the week-end were the Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Noland of Kingston, Tenn. The Noland were here to attend the Ferguson-Noland reunion at the Queen Farm on Sunday.

Although the emu was once threatened with extinction, it has come back to the point where it is a pest with a bounty on its beak in parts of Australia.

Farmers Urged To Observe PMA Cost-Share Deadline

Haywood County farmers were cautioned today to make their requests for PMA cost-share assistance before the deadline of November 6.

All assistance in the county will be divided between farmers who have submitted requests by November 6, according to A. W. Ferguson, PMA manager here.

Cost-share meetings, at which farmers may make their individual requests, are now in progress in the county. They began October 1 and are to continue through October 12. Farmers who were unable to attend these community meetings, however, may make their requests at the PMA office in the courthouse, Mr. Ferguson pointed out.

Prompt requests and observation of the November 6 deadline is important in helping the county

PMA organization plan its 1954 program, Mr. Ferguson added. The program for next year will be changed in some respects from those in the past; one of those changes is the setting of a deadline on requests for assistance.

Lime, phosphate, and fertilizer will be available according to the needs as shown by soil tests; the PMA manager explained. Soil samples are taken by farmers and sent to the state laboratory for analysis.

Tip for weight-watchers. Clear soups and bouillon cubes have little food value.
