Mrs. Barefoot Is Killed In Highway Crash

Mrs. Charity Messer Barefoot, 60, formerly of Canton, was fatally injured when her car and a tractor-truck collided on the Pineville-Charlotte highway Friday afternoon. She suffered head and internal injuries and died in a Charlotte hospital.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Barefoot's automobile was involved in a head-on crash with a truck driven by Charles E. Ward, 25, of near Mt. Holly. He was not seriously injured.

Mrs. Barefoot, who formerly owned and operated Martin's Drug Store in Canton, had been residing with a daughter, Mrs. John M. Gamble, in Lancaster, S. C. for the past two years.

She was a native of Haywood County and the widow of Earl G. Barefoot. She had been cashier with Fater's and Grace Pharmacy in Asheville and was a charter member of Asheville Quota Club.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the chapel of Wells Funeral Home, Canton, with the Rev. H. L. Smith officiating.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Gamble, are five brothers, Ned Messer of Portland, Ore., Rex Messer of Montana, Welch Messer of Clyde, Route 1, and Raymond Messer of Detroit, Mich.

Also four sisters, Mrs. Robert Hawkins, Mrs. Monroe Yarborough, and Mrs. Monroe Noland of Clyde, Route 1, and Mrs. Tom Hutchins of Canton; and one grandchild.

Clyde PTA Plans Annual Halloween Carnival

By MRS. KYLE LINDSEY, Community Reporter
The Clyde PTA met Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Elmer Goodson, presided and Mrs. Gillis had charge of the program. The theme of the meeting was "Personality". The Rev. Kenneth George, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Clyde, gave the devotion.

Mrs. Mark Cathey reported on the meeting with Police Chief C. F. Lanning concerning the "Mother's Patrol" which has previously been reported in this paper.

A committee was named to help make plans for the "Halloween Carnival", which is an annual event in the gymnasium. Mr. Livingston, the principal, told the group that a number of chairs had been bought for the cafeteria and were expected to arrive soon. Also that the soft drink machine had been placed in the hall and profits will go to the school treasury.

There was considerable discussion of raising money by selling calendars but no decision was made.

Mrs. Davidson presented the award to the PTA for winning first place for table arrangements in the flower show last summer. Mrs. Carl Gillis and Mrs. George C. Starr were in charge of the PTA arrangement.

A room count was taken, and Mrs. R. C. Cannon, of the 3rd grade, and Mrs. Greene, of the high school, won by having the most parents present. Minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report were read by the secretary.

MRS. W. M. ALEXANDER of Nashville, Tenn., noted Bible teacher, is conducting a Bible study at the First Methodist Church here for members of all Methodist and Episcopal churches in the county. Around three hundred persons attended the opening session Sunday night. Additional sessions will be held tonight, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 7:30 o'clock. The study is on The Prophet Jeremiah.

"Life Of Christ" To Be Discussed Monday In Catholic Series

"The Life of Christ" will be the subject of tonight's Monday lecture by Father Lawrence C. Newman, pastor of St. John's Catholic Church. This will be the third in a series of public discussion meetings aimed at better community understanding of Catholic beliefs.

The lectures followed by question and answer periods are open to the public and are held every Monday and Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

Last Thursday night's forum was followed by so interested a group that all stayed far overtime asking and discussing many questions. The subject of the evening was "God the Creator".

Father Newman wishes to repeat that this Catholic Information Forum is extremely informal, and that the public is most welcome at no obligation or charge. The lectures will start on time and will endeavor to close on schedule.

Mrs. H. C. Ferguson left Friday for Washington, D. C., to visit her granddaughter, Mrs. Irving Philmon, and Mr. Philmon. She will also visit her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson of Bethesda, Md.
