Attendance Records Set At All Denominations In Crabtree Sunday Schools

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON
Community Reporter

Three Crabtree churches set new Sunday School attendance records last Sunday, and each with an attendance of 64. The Sunday record of 64 was a high mark for Fincher's Chapel, while the same number-attended Crabtree Methodist, for a record, and the new Liberty church in the "Rabbit Skin" section had an attendance of 64. The Crabtree, 3 from Iron Duff were attendance of 161, which is an excellent record.

The revival at the Crabtree Baptist Church closed last week. On Sunday afternoon the Crabtree and Iron Duff Baptist Churches came together at Joe Palmer's Pond for a Baptismal Service. One from Crabtree, 3 from Iron Duff were immersed.

Those attending the Bible Study of "The Prophet Jeremiah" last week in Waynesville were so interested that the Adult and Young Adult Sunday School classes of the Crabtree M.E. Church have organized a Bible study class which will meet every Sunday evening at 7:30 in the church sanctuary with a rotation of teachers. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

We regret with sympathy to learn of the death of Mrs. J. Y. Davis' mother, Mrs. Alice Gregory, who died last week at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Violet Payne of Hot Springs.

We are also sorry to learn that Bob Clement of Maggie has been taken to the hospital in Winston-Salem, Mrs. Clement is the former Miss Helen Noland of Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nesbitt entertained with a dinner party on Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Queen Meredith of Enid, Okla. Others enjoying the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Ferguson in whose home the Merediths are guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirkpatrick had as their guests for the week, their daughter, Mrs. R. D. Coleman, Jr., and children, Robert and Claire of Newberry, S. C., and Mrs. Kirkpatrick's sister, Mrs. Duncan of Asheville.

We are happy to learn that Mrs. Lush Chambers of Hazelwood has returned home much improved from an Asheville hospital where she has been for 4 weeks. Mrs. Chambers is the former Miss Gertrude Haney of Crabtree.

Relatives of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Ferguson have learned of their safe arrival in Hollywood, Calif., where they have gone to spend the winter with Mrs. Ferguson's sister, Mrs. Anne Allen. They report a pleasant trip and the finding of Hollywood a wonderful place.

B. F. Nesbitt spent Sunday in Asheville with his father, Mr. J. B. Nesbitt of Fairview, who underwent a major operation on Friday at the Mission hospital.

Joining the Methodist congregation for worship on Sunday morning were J. H. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Miss Mary Francis of Canton and Harry Lowe of Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Davis accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Browning of Asheville, have returned from a trip through Virginia, going up the Parkway Drive to Roanoke and returning through the Shenandoah Valley. They visited "Monticello", the Mammoth Caves and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson and children of Maryville, Tenn., and

Registration Of Motor Vehicles Hits New High

Registration Director Foy Ingram of the Motor Vehicles Department said today that total motor vehicle registration in North Carolina had climbed to a new high.

Through October 20, Miss Ingram reported there were 1,357,655 cars, trucks and buses on record.

This figure compared to 1,272,975 through a comparable period last year.

As for new car registration Miss Ingram had figures available through September. During that month there were 13,103 new cars and trucks registered with the Motor Vehicles Department, the highest monthly total since February, 1951.

For the nine-months ending September 30, the Registration Division has recorded a total of 82,409 passenger cars and 20,248 trucks. For the same period in 1952 there were 56,307 cars and 17,084 trucks registered.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman Noland, of Fines Creek were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Ferguson during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keys and daughter Joan of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morgan and children, and Mrs. Fannie McElroy of Enka and Mr. and Mrs. J. Matt Davis of Upper Crabtree were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andy M. Ferguson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wells and family of Knoxville, Tenn., were week end guests of Mr. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wells. Mr. Oliver, Kent of Canton was also a visitor in the Wells home during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Ferguson were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swayngim of Bryson City.

We congratulate Mrs. Wm. J. McCreary, Sr. (Aunt Callie) on reaching her 93th birthday which she celebrated on Sunday, a full account of which will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Miss Ruth Ferguson who is a student at Blanton's Business College in Asheville spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy M. Ferguson.

We find there are still courteously honest people. On Saturday C. F. Ferguson lost a check from the Asheville Stock Yard in Asheville, and before night he had a call from a man in Asheville that the check had been found and would be held for him.

Among those taking the Civil Service examinations in Asheville Saturday were Max Rogers, W. T. Ferguson, Carlyle Davis and Julius Ross.

Foods rich in protein get leathery when they are cooked at high temperatures, so keep the heat low when you are preparing dishes with eggs and cheese in them.

THE REV. GRADY ROSS BARRINGER is the new minister of the Dellwood Methodist Charge which includes Elizabeth Chapel, Maple Grove and Dellwood Churches. Although Mr. Barringer has assumed his duties at the three churches, he is still completing his seminary work at Emory University and will move to Haywood County after its conclusion in December. Mr. Barringer was born and raised in Mt. Pleasant and graduated from Pfeiffer Junior College. He later received his first degree from Emory University in 1951. He is 24 years of age and is married to the former Jeanne Lambert of Mt. Pleasant. They have one daughter, Sonya, age 2. The Barringers will move to the parsonage built about 4 years ago in Dellwood in December.

Operations Family

MIDDLETON, N. Y. (AP) — speaking of operations, as they often do in the Claude Crotty family, the Crotty daughters, Susan Ann, seven, and Claudia, six, have more operations to tell about than all their friends and relatives put together. Claudia has just passed her sixth birthday in Middletown Sanatorium recuperating from her eighteenth operation. Most of them have been operations in a series started when she was five days old to correct a rare defect. She was born with the bladder on the outside of the abdominal wall. Complicated by the fact that it was an open sac, Doctors succeeded in providing a means of closing it and tucking it into a pocket created within the abdomen. That took seventeen operations.

The other was a tonsillectomy. With all that behind her, Claudia is entering school at the first grade.

Susan Ann, at seven, can count one operation for each year of her life. Hers have overcome a oral defect.

Where Was Willie Sutton?

SALISBURY, Mass. (AP) — The entire police force took the day off for the wedding of Police Capt. Benjamin Sturgis — and crime took the day off, too.

There wasn't a single crime reported—not even an accident—while department members attended the chief's wedding to Miss Wanda Woron of Newburyport. State police filled in for the local force.

MEDICINE SHELF CLEAN-UP
 It is a good idea not to hoard old medicines, especially those concocted for someone else. Discard them. Make sure you have essential items, however, such as gauze and adhesive bandages, aspirin, cotton, antiseptic, thermometer, burn remedy and aromatic spirits of ammonia.

REVIVE BRUSHES
 Neglected paint brushes may be brought to life by soaking them in turpentine for a day or two. Bristles may then be washed in warm soapsuds and manipulated gently with fingers or rubbed across a small wash board.

Sober Thought
 BECKLEY, W. Va. (AP) — A member of Alcoholics Anonymous, attending the seventh anniversary picnic of the local chapter, was asked what AA had done for him. He replied: "It sure messed up my drinking."

CLEAN GARDEN HOSE
 Your garden hose should be cleaned with a sudsy cloth, rinsed, not left dirty and over the winter. It is a good idea to hang the hose well-collared against the wall. This helps dry it each use and the rubber or the tubing will last longer.
