Favorite Fabric

By VERA WINSTON

THAT perennial favorite, fine wool gabardine, is doing so well this season, holding its own in a wide range of fabrics. It is used in pastels or jewel tones for a handsome and useful daytime dress, good for town or country. The casual collar has a deep slit and can be worn with a kerchief or jewelry. The seaming from the yoke pockets converges towards the waist for a slimming line. The pockets at the hips extend just a bit, and there is a leather lined self belt.
