presented the wedding music. The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white flowers against a background of woodwardia fern, interspersed with wrought iron candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Hurey F. Jones of Durham. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and Skinner's satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, high round neckline with a round yoke of nylon marquisette, and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full satin skirt ended in a court train and her veil of silk illusion fell from a small lace cloche. She carried a cascade of white roses and gardenias centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. C. G. Berkstresser of Coropus Christi, Texas, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Johnson Hayes Linney of Atlanta and Mrs. Leon M. Killian, Jr. of Waynesville, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore floor length strapless dresses of mauve nylon tulle and satin with matching jackets and cloches. Mrs. Berkstresser carried a bouquet of asters in shades of pink. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of asters shaped from orchid to deep purple.

Vickie Berkstresser, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of white patterned after that of the bride.

James Cannon of Dillsboro served as best man and ushers were Johnny Linney of Atlanta, Sam Johnson of Raleigh, and Carol Grahl, and Wallace Brown of Waynesville.

Mrs. Jones, mother of the bride, wore a waltz length dress of cinnamon taffeta with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a waltz length dress of rose crepe and lace with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of orchids.

Following the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained with a reception in the Pine Room of the Carolina Inn. Assisting were Mrs. A. S. Creini, Mrs. Ernest Rockley, and Mrs. Waylan Cooper.

The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip South. For traveling the bride wore a blue suit with bead trim and matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Alley attended the Chapel Hill High School and King's Business College in Greensboro. She is presently employed by the University of North Carolina as secretary to Dr. I. G. Cheek of the Business Foundation of N. C.

Mr. Alley attended Waynesville High School and Oak Ridge Military Academy and is now in his second year Law School at the University of North Carolina. He is a veteran of two years' service in the Korean war.

The couple will reside at 741 1/2 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill.
