

Books - Gates Wedding Is Held In Texas

Miss Barbara Jean Gates, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Gates of Canyon, Route 1, and Oscar Gates of Waco, became the bride of Bertie Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Hooks, of Houston, Texas, in Epworth Methodist church, Houston, Friday evening, Jan. 6, 1954, with the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Holmes, performing the wedding ceremony.

The church was decorated with mimosas, palms, and baskets of white gladioli.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. L. C. Harrison, pianist, and Miss Fay Ray, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a champagne gown of white nylon tulle over imported lace, featuring a Peter Pan collar and long, fitted sleeves, covered the straps, and a long, tiered veil of imported tulle. Her bouquet was of pink and white roses.

Miss Joyce Chirgwin was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaid. She wore a white gown with a pink sash. Other bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Chirgwin, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Bonnie Bloomer, cousin of the bride. All the attendants wore dresses similar in design to that of the bride. The maid of honor wore pink tulle and net and the bridesmaids wore pink tulle and net. They carried bouquets of pink and white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church, after which the couple left for a wedding trip.

Mrs. Shellenberger is a graduate of Gallatin County High School and attended Montana State College where she was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. She is now employed in the office of the dean of the college.

Mr. Shellenberger will receive his degree in chemistry from Montana college in June. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mrs. Gates, mother of the bride, wore a beige suit with navy blue accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was also an orchid.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., and on their return will reside in Houston.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue dress with black accessories, and the orchid, detachable from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of the high school, and has been employed in Houston for some time. The bridegroom, who has
