Miss Edith Summerrow Is Bride Of M. R. Whisenhunt

Miss Edith Marian Summerrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland Summerrow of Hazelwood, became the bride of Murray Ray Whisenhunt Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Walter Murray Whisenhunt of Waynesville and the late Mr. Whisenhunt.

The Rev. Archie C. Graham, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows in the presence of members of the two families.

A program of music was presented by Miss Sylvia Newell, pianist, and Mrs. John H. Kirkpatrick, Jr., soloist. Miss Newell played "Nocturne" by Chopin, "Claire de Lune" by Debussy, "Sweet Dreams" by Tchaikowsky, and "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell. Mrs. Kirkpatrick sang "O Perfect Love" by Blumfield, "Because," by d'Hardelot, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte as a benediction.

The couple stood before an arch entwined with ivy and the altar was decorated with floor vases of white gladioli, snapdragons and chrysanthemums against a background of palms and woodwardia fern. Branched candelabra were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of candlelight satin and Chantilly lace made with fitted bodice, crescent neck with lace bertha, and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt, which extended into a cathedral train, was fashioned with panels of lace down the front and her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a tiera of lace trimmed with orange

Int. Relations Group Meets With Mrs. Goold

The International Relations Department of the Waynesville Woman's Club held its January meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Edgar H. Goold.

The group laid plans for participating in "Brotherhood Week" in February, and for assisting in the Peace Essay contest in March at the high school.

During their discussion period, the Department members took France as their topic.

The next meeting of the group will be held in February at the home of Mrs. Hooper Alexander, Jr.

Mrs. Sam Jones is expected to arrive tonight after spending ten days in Key West with her son, Sam Jones, Jr., who is stationed there with the U. S. Navy. Mrs. Don Honeycutt of Champagne, Ill., daughter of Mrs. Jones, also returned to her home after joining her mother in Key West.

blissoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid and her only ornament was a lavalier, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Edna Summerrow was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a strapless, full length dress of azalea rose taffeta and net designed with a bolero and bouffant skirt. Her headdress was a matching cap of velvet leaves and she carried a cascade bouquet of azalea rose carnations.

Donald Roberts Whisenhunt of Waynesville served as best man for his brother and ushers were Harry Robinson of Waynesville and Dana F. Tugman of Jefferson.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home at Hazelwood. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Summerrow, Mrs. Philip Queen, and Mrs. Franklin Correll. Miss Elizabeth Summerrow, niece of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's table was laid with a white linen cut-work cloth and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white tapers in silver holders. Silver vases holding white roses were used at each end of the table and greenhouse smilax was draped to the corners with lilies.

Mrs. Summerrow, mother of the bride, wore a slate blue crepe dress with matching accessories and her corsage was a lavender orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore a grey silk dress with matching accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride wore a brown wool suit with beige and brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Whisenhunt was graduated from the Waynesville High School and is now employed as a teller at the First National Bank. She is a member of the Alpha Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Mr. Whisenhunt is a graduate of State College, Raleigh where he was a member of Alpha Zeta honorary fraternity. He served in the European Theatre during World War II and is now employed by the North Carolina Department of Agriculture as superintendent of Mountain Experiment Station in Waynesville. The couple will reside at the Experiment Station.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson of Elizabeth, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Howe Taylor Crockett and children of Franklin, Spence Correll of Lynchburg, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Correll of Raleigh, Miss Judy Morgan of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Dana Tugman of Jefferson.

MISS JUNE C. BRANDT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brandt of Waynesville, is engaged to Joe F. Christopher, son of Fred Christopher of Hazelwood. The wedding will take place this month at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas where the bride-elect is stationed with the Air Force.

Miss Bischoff Is Honored At Crystal Shower

Miss Anne Bischoff, whose marriage to Jerome Boyd will be an event of the week, was honored at a crystal shower given by Mrs. Jack Edwards, Mrs. Richard Medford, and Miss Lillian Knox Medford Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Edwards.

A color scheme of green and yellow was used to carry out the bridal motif in decorating. Games featured the entertainment after which prizes were awarded the winners.
