

Mothers To March For Polio Dimes In Thickety Friday

By MISS LURA WRIGHT
Community Reporter

A number of women in the Thickety community are preparing for the Mothers' March Friday evening, when homes will be visited to aid the March of Dimes. A light on every porch or door post is the goal, and it is hoped workers will not be disappointed.

Mrs. Cora Flynn of Canton was honored at a birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. L. R. Roberson of Candler were hostesses. Relatives attending were a brother, W. P. Harris, two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Newman and Mrs. Paul Murray, and Mr. Murray, L. R. Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson and son, and Mrs. Jim Harris and children, Nancy and Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hipps and children, James Ray and Rebecca Jane, visited relatives of Mrs. Hipps at Spindale the latter part of the week.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Rathburn were dinner guests of Mrs. T. G. Murray and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haney and children of Newport News, Va., visited his sister, Mrs. Nathan Wilson and family Saturday.

Bobby Pressley of Candler who has returned after a year in Korea visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hipps, Sunday.

The W. M. Williamson family were dinner guests of Mrs. George Worley and family at Beaverdam Sunday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mr. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whitted had as their guests over the weekend their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hendrix, Mr. Hendrix and daughter Wanda Carol, of West Asheville. Miss Janice Jarene Pace of Asheville, Bobby D. Graham of Charlotte, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan and son, of Mars Hill College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Kirkpatrick and children, Mary Gail, Milas and Sandra, of Waynesville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hipps Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Jacobs was hostess to the Wesleyan Service Guild of Rockwood Methodist Church Thursday evening. A program on the mission work in Malaya was given with Mrs. Gladys Burrell and Mrs. David Burch taking part.

Mrs. Jacobs, the president, was in charge of the business, during which reports were heard and business discussed. The group voted a special offering for supply work in a nearby county. A social hour followed and refreshments were enjoyed.

J. I. Wagner, county agent of Guilford County, Mrs. Wagner, and Mrs. Rubv Uzzle of Greensboro, were guests in the community Thursday while on a visit to Haywood County. They were welcomed by Mrs. Gladys Burrell, vice chairman of the CDP, who showed them over the community's Recreation Center, an old Rockwood Church where recent improvements have been made. Steve Cassell, assistant county agent, accompanied the visitors to the community.

An important meeting of the Thickety CDP has been scheduled for Thursday evening, February 4th, at the Rockwood Methodist Church at 7 o'clock. County Agents Wayne Franklin and S. S. Cassell are expected to attend and will outline some projects by which an added income can be realized by the community. Some of the subjects to be discussed include tobacco, poultry and beef cattle.
