Christ, the Living Bread

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—John 6

Jesus went up into a mountain with His disciples, and a multitude followed them. The feast of the Passover was near. Jesus asked Philip how all could be fed. Philip said they had very little to feed so many.

Andrew said a boy with them had five barley loaves and two fishes. Jesus asked for them, and instructed the disciples to seat the people on the grass. Then He gave thanks, divided the food and there was plenty for all.

To avoid the crowd Jesus went away alone, while the disciples entered a ship to cross the sea. A storm arose, and the disciples saw Jesus walking toward them on the water. He said, "It is I; be not afraid."

Jesus accused people of seeking Him only because of His miracles. "I am the bread of life," He told them; "He that cometh to Me shall never hunger and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst." MEMORY VERSE—John 6:35.

White Oak CDP Has Program For March Of Dimes

By PATSY DAVIS
Reporter
A regular meeting of the White Oak Community Development Program was held Saturday night in the community house.
George Boring, co-chairman, presided and Mrs. Rowe Ledford and Robert Fisher gave the devotions.
Wayne Franklin, county agent, was introduced and spoke on ways to increase farm income.
Following the program cake walks were held for the benefit of the March of Dimes. Special music was presented by Mrs. Fred Brown, Taylor Allen, Reeves Allen, Glenn Ledford, Ernest Ledford, Charles Massie and Kenneth Brown.
One cake brought by Mrs. Sam Ledford was sold at auction for $5.00 to Mr. Ledford and Floyd Teague, who won the $1.00 door prize, donated the money to the polio fund along with other cash donations. The project netted $26.00.
Guests at the meeting were Miss Bonnie Davis of Waynesville, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Derrick of Balsam, Arlath Messer of Cove Creek, and Howard Hunter of Virginia.
At the close of the meeting, the cakes were served with coffee.

The White Oak Home Demonstration Club will have an all-day meeting Wednesday, February 10, in the home of Mrs. George Boring.

T. N. Leatherwood is still a patient at the Aston Park Hospital in Asheville.

Howard Hunter of Virginia is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hunter.

Old Folks Service At Barberville Baptist Fri.

A special Old Folks Service will be held at the Barberville Baptist Church Friday night, February 5, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Jarvis Brock.
The Rev. Joe Smith, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Waynesville, will conduct the services which will get under way at 7:30 o'clock.
Special music will be presented by the Mt. Olive Choir and other singers.
Recognition will be given the elderly people present. The pastor and members extend a cordial invitation to the public for this service.

42 In Bethel Baptist SS On January Honor Roll

Forty-two members of the Bethel Baptist Church were placed on the honor roll for perfect attendance during the month of January, it was announced by Major Burress, superintendent of the Sunday School. Leading class was that of the women who had seven members listed. They are Mrs. A. T. Medford, Mrs. J. B. McElroy, Mrs.

Bethel Methodist Begins Crusade For Attendance

Along with all Methodist churches the Bethel Methodist Church is beginning an attendance crusade Sunday, February 7.
The Commission on Membership and Evangelism is promoting the crusade. It includes Mrs. Cora Welch, Mrs. Carson Clark, Mrs. Fred Hyatt, Mrs. L. B. George, Misses Nancy Smathers and Oleen Massie, Charles Osborne, John Remenar, H. K. Terrell, M. C. Nix.
"The crusade takes on importance when we face the facts of the irregularity in church attendance of so many of the members," the Rev. L. B. George, minister of the church, states. "Statistics show that about two thirds of the members of the church attend very seldom, if at all. The crusade is an honest effort to win this large per cent of the members back to regular attendance at church."

There will be a roll call of the members of Bethel and a tabulation of the attendance each Sunday for a period of eleven weeks, concluding on Easter Sunday.
A series of evangelistic services will be conducted during the last week. Rev. Kenneth Crouse, pastor of Morning Star Charge, will be the visiting minister.

J. W. Kinsland, Mrs. Major Burress, Mrs. Margaret Cole, Mrs. Louise Wright and Mrs. J. M. Long.
