"Can This Be The Christ?"

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—John 7-8.

The Jews' feast of the Tabernacles was at hand, and Jesus' brethren asked Him to go and let His disciples see His miracles. He refused, however, for He knew that His own brethren did not believe in Him.

Later Jesus went to the feast, and people argued with one another, some saying, "He is a good man; others said, Nay, but He deceiveth the people," but no man spoke openly of Him for fear of the Pharisees.

Jesus taught in the temple, and the Pharisees marvelled, saying, "How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?" Some said He hath a father, others, "He speaketh boldly and say nothing unto Him."

The Pharisees sent officers to take Jesus, but they returned without Him, and when asked why they had not brought Him, they answered, "Never man spake like this Man."
MEMORY VERSE—John 8:12.
