Mrs. Brown, Recent Bride, Is Honored

Mrs. Charlie Woodard entertained with a tea Sunday afternoon in her home on Haywood Street as a courtesy to Mrs. Wallace Brown of Chapel Hill, a recent bride. Mrs. Brown and her husband were here for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

A Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The front door was decorated with a large red heart and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations and white snapdragon. Red and white flowers were also used in the living room.

The receiving line was composed of the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. George Brown, and Mrs. Carrol Cape, sister-in-law of the bride.

Presiding at the tea table during alternate hours were Mrs. L. C. Clark, Mrs. N. F. Lancaster, Mrs. Boyd Owen, and Mrs. J. E. Fender. Receiving at the entrance to the dining room were Mrs. Clifford Hatted, Mrs. Julius Summerrow, Mrs. Charles McDarris, and Mrs. M. B. Reeves, Jr., and assisting in serving were Mrs. Henry Snook, Mrs. Henry Clayton, Mrs. Erwin Burgin, and Mrs. Kenneth Lowe. Others assisting were Mrs. Eileen Strickland, Mrs. Claude Woodard, Mrs. James Williams, and Mrs. Kenneth Turner.

A gift of linen was presented to the bride. Around one hundred guests called during the hours from 2 until 6 o'clock.

Expert Advice On Care Of Lampshades Offered

By RUTH CURRENT
State Home Demonstration Agent

REMOVE CELLOPHANE WRAPPING — If you have new lampshades wrapped in cellophane, be sure to remove the wrapping. Cellophane has a tendency to shrink with heat from the light bulb and warp the shade as well as creating almost permanent dirt streaks on the lampshade. The cellophane cover also reduces the amount of light. To quickly remove wrapping, clip through cellophane at a horizontal level. It can then easily and quickly be lifted off from the top and from the bottom.

RAISIN-NUT SAUCE—Combine 1 1/2 cups sugar with 3/4 cup water and 1 tablespoon white corn syrup, and cook over medium heat stirring until mixture boils. Cover and cook two minutes. Uncover and cook until mixture thickens slightly (about 5 minutes). Then add 1 cup seedless raisins cut in half, dash of salt, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, grated rind of one lemon, and half cup of chopped pecans. Blend thoroughly. Serve hot or cold, over vanilla ice cream, plain cake, or puddings.

THIS AND THAT—Strong tea diluted with a little water makes an excellent antique-like satin finish for pine wood. When dry, cover with two thin coats of fresh white shellac, then wax.

You can wash a clothes line with mild soap in warm water. Rinse and dry thoroughly. To keep it clean, try a thin coat of white shellac.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Baugher and son, James, Jr., left this morning by plane for Ponce, Porto Rico, where Mr. Baugher has accepted a position with the Foot Mint Shoe Corporation. Salads Made With Macaroni

By ALICE DENHOFF
MACARONI salads are a "natural" in Sunday night suppers for the family or buffet parties for guests.

They can be prepared ahead and kept in the refrigerator until serving time. And macaroni salads offer opportunity for all sorts of variations.

Cantonese Chicken
Cantonese Chicken Macaroni Salad is a treat for the family and a fine party selection.

Prepare 8 oz elbow macaroni (2 c.) according to package directions, then chill. Combine chilled macaroni, 3 c. diced cooked chicken, 3/4 c. chopped celery, 3/4 tsp. minced onion, and 1 1/2 tsp. chopped crystallized ginger; toss lightly, but thoroughly. Season to taste with salt, pepper and thyme. Add enough mayonnaise to moisten and bind salad mixture. Serve on crisp lettuce.

Viking Noodles
Viking Noodle Salad offers another variation.
Cook 8 oz. fine egg noodles

(about 4 c.) according to package directions. Chill. Mash 1/2 clove minced garlic with a small amount of salt in bottom of salad bowl; rub bowl with mixture. Combine chilled noodles, 4 diced, medium-sized tomatoes, 1/2 c. chopped celery, 1 thinly sliced, medium-sized onion, 1 bunch water cress coarsely chopped, 1/4 lb. blue cheese, crumbled, 1/2 c. French dressing, and salt and pepper to taste. Toss lightly, but thoroughly. Serve well chilled.

Golden Glow
Golden Glow Shell Salad serves 4-6. It takes 8 oz. shell macaroni (3 c.), prepared according to directions, then chilled. Combine chilled macaroni with 6 diced, hard-boiled eggs, 3/4 c. minced celery, 3 tsp. minced onion, 1 c. diced cucumber, 1/2 tsp. each dry mustard and celery seed, 1/4 c. mayonnaise or cooked salad dressing and 1/4 c. French dressing. Mix lightly and thoroughly. Serve in crisp lettuce cups.

Supplement these with piping hot rolls, lots of coffee and a hearty dessert.

Whales sometimes have twins.

Pretty Princess

By VERA WINSTON

IDEALLY suited to the young, lithe figure is the princess line and it is good to see it making the grade this season. It is the style used for a dainty dance dress, a fine bit of flattery for a pretty young lady. Gray acetate taffeta makes the body of the dress and its princess line is beautifully molded to the figure, flowing away at the hipline. The shoulder yoke is of chiffon in the same shade.

Fashion and fabric share the honors in this important line for spring. It features the cape-inspired, blouse-like and deep sleeves—with cardigan neckline and stem-line skirt equally fashion-right. The jacket is of MANN'S nubby Cambria Mix, the skirt a blending spring weight worsted called Speckled Grouse. Both virgin wool. Duchess embossed crepe lining.
