

South Clyde CDP To Meet Monday; To Hear Agents

By Mrs. Kyle Lindsey
Community Reporter

The C.D.P. will meet at the Community Center Monday night at 7:30 for their regular meeting. A good attendance is expected. The county agents will be our special guests and will have an interesting program to present.

The H. D. Club met at the community house Tuesday for their February meeting. They had a good attendance and Miss Mary Cornwell gave a demonstration on "Let's Make Housekeeping Easier."

The W.S.C.S. of Louisa Chapel will meet at the home of Mrs. Snyder next Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m.

The W.S.C.S. of Central Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Walter Rhodarmer last Thursday for an all-day meeting. Mrs. Grady Rogers had charge of the program.

Mrs. Robert Lindsey is on the sick list this week. Wess Sellers, who has been ill is improving, as is Mrs. Roy Swanger. Little "Butch" Willard has measles.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rhodarmer, who have a new son, Larry Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Deaver and daughter, Iva Ann, spent the weekend with their son and brother, Robert, who is in State College, Raleigh.

The W.Y.P.S. group of the Wesleyan Methodist Church gave a program last Sunday night on "Train Up A Child in the Way He Should Go." Mrs. Eugene Hawkins had charge of the play. Those taking parts were John Lindsey, Mrs. Ray Haney, Grace Jones, Edd Smith, Ray Haney, Betty Sue Jones, and Rev. Kenneth George. The group was glad to welcome a large number of visitors.

The P. T. A. will meet Thursday night and will observe Fathers' Night and Founders Day. Some of the students of South Clyde will take part on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Shelton had visitors from Marion during the weekend.

Many Attend East Pigeon CDP Meet Held Last Friday

By MARY BLAYLOCK
Community Reporter

The East Pigeon Community Development group met Friday night at the Bethel School. The attendance was excellent, with many young people in the audience. Some say that the basketball games help build up attendance at the CDP meetings.

Two members of the county agent's office staff were on the program. They were Wayne Franklin, and Steve Cassell. Mr. Franklin spoke on corn growing.

The East Pigeon girls' basketball team have a perfect record for the five communities they have played this season—all victories and no losses.

Charles Stamey, coach of the boys' team, is setting up a fine record for the season.

Gena Watson, a visiting college student in the community, gave a talk Sunday morning at the Mt. Zion church on the life and customs of the peoples of Jamaica.

Rev. Marvin Mann is seriously ill. Among those being called to his bedside include: Mr. and Mrs. James Mann, and son, and Mrs. Vernon Dalton and children, all from Virginia.

Little Linda Gornes is out again after being ill for four months.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Queen and children visited Mrs. Queen's sister in Hendersonville on Sunday.

Mrs. Lila Rittions is very ill in an Asheville hospital.

Wheel Spins Juries

DENVER (AP) — A gambling wheel spins out about 200 "winners" every other week at Denver in Colorado's only legalized lottery.

The 50-year-old confiscated wheel is used to pick jury panels for Denver district court. It is kept in a large safe in the city and county building. Under law, it is brought out only in the presence of the presiding judge of district court, clerk of the court, jury commissioner and his deputy and the clerk and recorder.
