Pvt. Joe J. Mull Has Finished Training

Private Joe J. Mull, Route 1, Waynesville, has completed advanced military training with Heavy Mortar Company, 61st Regiment, 8th Infantry Division at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Private Mull was a member of a unit which was designated to take part in an important training experiment ordered by the Department of the Army. His unit was one of those that was selected for organization into platoon packets.

ANSWERS TO WASHINGTON QUIZ

- No. He was born Feb. 11, 1732, oldstyle calendar. When England (and colonies) adopted the Gregorian calendar, the date became Feb. 22.
- In 1796, three years after his death.
- Yes.
- He stayed on the untamed animal although it tried hard to unseat him. Enraged, it reared up and fell dead of a burst blood vessel. He told his mother: "Madam, the colt is dead: I killed him."
- He contracted smallpox when he accompanied his ailing half-brother, Lawrence, to Barbados in the vain hope the milder climate would cure him.
- Yes. In his early 20's he joined Gen. Braddock in fighting the French and Indians.
- His soldiers.
- He was awkward around women although he loved to dance. His suit was rejected by several women before he married the young widow, Martha Custis.
- He had hundreds of slaves but he disliked slavery for economic and social reasons. He carefully clothed and fed his slaves.
- It was written largely by Hamilton and reworked by Washington to express his own ideas.

Fines Creek Baptists Plan Church Addition

By MRS. SAM FERGUSON
Community Reporter

A large crowd attended church services Sunday morning at Fines Creek Memorial Baptist Church. In the afternoon Pastor Thomas Erwin met with the deacons to make plans about the building of Sunday School classrooms. Revival meeting starts Sunday night, February 21.

The 7th grade class with the assistance of Hugh Rogers, teacher, won in the recent polo drive contest.

Kirkpatrick, before her marriage, died at Fines Creek School. They get a holiday and plan a trip to the pink beds soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fish and family have moved to Winston-Salem.

Mack and Frank Fish, formerly of this section and now living in Winston-Salem, were recent visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Brummitt attended the funeral of W. H. Faucett, Mr. Brummitt's uncle, last Monday in Asheville. The body was taken for burial to the eastern part of the state where he had formerly lived.

Mrs. J. D. West, who returned home from the hospital several days ago, is still in serious condition.

Mrs. Lawrence Kirkpatrick, who has spent quite a while at the home of her brother-in-law, M. M. Kirkpatrick, of Fines Creek, recently visited with her brother, Zack Brown in Waynesville. She returned to Fines Creek Saturday. Mrs. was Lettie Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Swanger and children from Brevard visited Mrs. Swanger's father, R. W. Green, this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rector and sister, Doris, from Newport News, Va., spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Rector.
