Upper Crabtree CDP Set Up Number Of Projects

By MRS. PEGGY McCURE Community Reporter

The people of the Upper Crabtree CDP held their regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 25, at the Mount Zion Methodist Church. The meeting was opened with group singing and prayer by Hershel Rogers, Brack James, president, presided.

It was decided that the people of the community and other people connected with the Mount Zion cemetery will bring their tools and equipment Wednesday, March 3, (and if weather permissible) to clean off the cemetery.

The men agreed to repaint all mailboxes and to make new road signs. Rex Messer is in charge of signs.

Patricia Messer was elected to keep the community scrapbook. The new program committee elected is as follows: Albert Ferguson, Billy Best, Benny Best, Edna Messer, Ruby Bradshaw. It was decided that after 3 months of meetings, whichever has the larger attendance, men or women, will fix supper for the other. Brack James thinks maybe Spaldon Underwood will get quite a bit of business if the women win.

The community will hold their next meeting Thursday night, March 11, at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trantham and two small daughters, Ruth and Martha, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trantham. They are residing in Florida.
