

Women Of Beaverdam Will Discuss Organizing Club At Monday Afternoon Meet

By MRS. GEORGE F. WORLEY
Community Reporter

Miss Cornwell, Home Demonstration Agent, will meet the women who are interested in organizing a club next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, March 15, at the home of Mrs. Paul Clark, Sr. Her home is on the Clark road which turns left going up the Smathers Hill road. A large crowd is expected at this meeting so officers can be elected and the club get off to a good start.

Mrs. J. C. Harrison whose phone number is 2071, is asking those who are interested in joining the Cub Scout Troop, ages from 8-11 to please get in touch with her. She is much interested in organizing this troop in the community. She met with a group at North Canton Church Monday night and they were pleased with receiving their Bobcat pins.

The W.S.C.S. of the Beaverdam Methodist Church is sponsoring a Stanley party at the church this Friday night. Any of the women from the community and elsewhere are invited as the proceeds will be used for the new kitchen and dining room of the church.

The women of this church met at the church from 10 till 2 Friday to observe the week of Prayer. A good program was enjoyed and much good was accomplished. Rev. Broome, pastor, enjoyed the occasion, also.

James Worley, Edith Worley, Roy Parham, and Mrs. Wilma Freeman will start a radio program Saturday morning from 6:15 till 6:30 over radio station WLOS, Asheville.

The North Canton people will observe Old Folks' night at the church this Saturday night.

Mrs. Luther Clark who has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eston Moore, is improving.

Mary Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Haney, is improving in the Haywood County Hospital following surgery.

Wanda O'Dear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Dear, entered Haywood County Hospital Monday.

Miss Shelby Jean Worley, daughter of Mrs. Chester Worley and the late Mr. Worley, was married recently to Roy Lee McCoy.
