

Fines Creek Farmers Welcome Warmer Weather

MRS. SAM FERGUSON Community Reporter

are so glad to see sun and weather moderating after a week of cold winter. At this time of year when feed prices are low, and the weather is so cold, it certainly worries and makes them hope for warmer weather and grass in the future.

Mrs. Robert Ferguson, Mrs. Ferguson's sister and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Swanger, children at Brevard Saturday.

Wayne Green, the former husband of Mrs. Robert Ferguson, has returned from Florida to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCrary on Fines Creek to stay while her husband is recuperating in a veterans' hospital in Montgomery, Ala. Mr. Green, who was injured in an automobile wreck near Valdese several days ago, seems to be getting along nicely. His brother, Dean, was injured more seriously. Both are getting along as well as can be expected.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Swanger on the arrival of a son, Austin Charles, born February 27. The Swangers now live at Brevard, but were formerly of Fines Creek. Mrs. Swanger, before her marriage, was Faye Green, daughter of R. W. Green.

Miss Linda Clark spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Robert Haynes.

Mrs. R. C. James left Sunday for a hospital at Winston-Salem, where she is taking treatment. Hopes to return home latter part of the week.

Nancy Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Bradshaw had a tonsil operation Tuesday at Haywood County Hospital. Nancy is in second grade at school.

Pvt. Bobby Rogers, son of Mr. F. M. Rogers, now stationed at Fort Bragg, spent the weekend at Fines Creek.

Mrs. Glenn Terrell and Mrs. Or-

Another Doak Walker In Texas?

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—There's another Doak Walker coming up! He's Walter Fondren, Houston's ville Noland visited their sister, Mrs. Charles McCrary, Sunday.

great high school player. Walker, former All-American halfback at Southern Methodist and now an All-Pro for the champion Detroit Lions, wore No. 37 on his jersey. Fondren wears the same number.

Fondren, says the critics, has the same stop-and-go style of action and gets the most out of a threat to pass. Joel Hunt, former Texas A & M football star who coached at Louisiana State and Georgia, remarked about Fondren's ability to run until a tackler thinks he has a dead shot at him then cut back into the tackler and either bounce off or run right through the tackler's arms.

The 155-pound Fondren gained

1,752 yards—1,341 rushing and 411 passing—in 11 games, while scoring 112 points.

He's the son of a Houston millionaire and won't be looking around for the highest bidder for next fall. He may decide to attend a Texas school.
